O'Neill, DiSalle Fire Point-Blank At Each Other

CLEVELAND (AP) — The big wheels of Ohio politics are churning in the deep paydirt of populous Cuyahoga County. One candidate for governor talks of campaign mud while the other speaks of the gutter.

The candidates for governor, Republican C. William O'Neill and Democrat Michael V. DiSalle, appeared to the voters Thursday night in live television broadcasts—over the same station, but an hour apart.

They missed each other at the front door of the station by a bare 10 minutes. But they will come face to face here Saturday in the traditional City Club debate.

Democrat Stephen M. Young beat the precinct bushes in his quest for votes and his Republican opponent for the U. S. Senate was due to campaign in Cuyahoga County today.

The fifth man in the act was Lausche.

O'Neill made a big pitch designed to offset DiSalle's earlier documented charge that some of the Republican governor's 1956 campaign television bill was picked up by the Ohio Conference of Teamsters and its president, William Presser.

O'Neill displayed photostatic copies of official documents to show that the DiSalle campaign for U. S. Senate in 1952 received $2,500 from labor's league for political education and the Toledo Democrat's 1956 campaign for governor received $1,000 contribution from the Ohio CIO Council.

DiSalle immediately retorted that, in light of the Presser link, O'Neill has shed "the cloak of respectability that has been his stock in trade . . . and has descended into the gutter." He challenged O'Neill to agree to an impartial, pre-election audit of the 1956 and 1958 campaign contributions to both candidates.

The Republican governor appeared to be trying to weld together his campaign for re-election and his late-blooming attempt to put Issue 2—the proposed constitutional amendment to regulate labor contracts—over the top.

O'Neill, as he has several times before, brought Democrat Lausche's name into the campaign. This time, he ventured the opinion that the Democratic platform would not have contained a plank against Issue 2 if Lausche had been the candidate for governor.

Only an hour before, however, Lausche had appeared on DiSalle's TV program with the assertion:

"If I thought for a moment that (former Toledo) Mayor DiSalle had made any alliances with any segment of the economy which would prevent him from being the governor of all the people, I would not be here tonight."

Lausche said DiSalle, in the 1956 campaign for governor, "repelled the support of groups which would have tied his soul."

O'Neill's attack on DiSalle was easily the roughest and most personal of his entire campaign. O'Neill asserted:

"The labor bosses (in 1952) made a down payment upon the services of my opponent should he ever be elected to public office."

"In 1956, when the labor bosses of Ohio CIO wanted to knock me out of public life, they gave my opponent the second installment payment for his services."

"The final payment in full for his services is now being made in this campaign."

But the figures on the undecided, who will decide the issue, is now narrowing, and our people think they're going to win in Ohio by a reasonable margin.

"One reason they think this is because Ohio in this off-year election has the greatest voter registration in its history."

"Now the Republicans, as you know, have got out the vote pretty well in Ohio. They've had their full registration. For that reason, our people think this additional registration is Democratic."

Rockefeller, Nixon Display New Harmony

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Vice President Nixon and Nelson Rockefeller, potential Republican presidential rivals for 1960, breakfasted together today. Both insisted they weren't even thinking about things on the other side of this year's election.

The harmony demonstration was hastily set up in New York City after an episode Thursday night in which Rockefeller, GOP candidate for governor, didn't attend a dinner for Nixon.

Afterward the vice president hurried away to catch a plane for Wisconsin to carry on his slambang campaigning for election of a Republican Congress in the voting a week from Tuesday.

Some Democrats were turning campaign guns more directly on President Eisenhower as leader of their opposition, with an accusation that he has shirked leadership in the school integration controversy.

Nixon himself set the stage for the teamwork display with Rockefeller. He went out of his way in a New York broadcast Thursday night to praise Rockefeller as an able administrator who offers New York "dynamic leadership."

Some observers had read into Rockefeller's absence from the dinner an implication of coolness between him and Nixon.

But the explanation from Rockefeller—who is wooing some of the Democratic voters Nixon has been lambasting as radicals—was that he simply had a long-standing prior date. His opponent is Gov. Averell Harriman, a favorite of Democrats who call themselves liberals.

Meanwhile, former President Harry S. Truman accused Eisenhower of sidestepping a "moral responsibility" to back up the Supreme Court's school integration ruling.

The result, Truman told a Democratic fund-raising dinner in Boston, was a wave of violence by "crackpots and extremists."

Turner told Patridge the raft carried no food or water. They subsisted, he said, by catching fish with their hands.

The 50-foot diesel-powered craft was last seen Saturday afternoon about 80 miles off Cedar Key, headed northwest for Steinhathe, the men's home, with 1,900 pounds of fish caught in the Gulf.

The raft was spotted about 90 miles south of that point by a search plane. The Coast Guard directed the two fishing boats to the scene.

LEBANON, Ohio (AP) — Carl Lilly, 52, of Foster, a part time bartender, was convicted in Warren County Common Pleas Court Thursday night on two counts of manslaughter in the fatal shooting of two men outside the tavern where Lilly worked.

The shooting occurred last July 26.

The victims were James Harvey Sykes, 34, father of five children, and John Lewis Jr., 31, father of three. The men were neighbors in Loveland Park.

Lilly had been charged with second degree murder but the jury returned the verdicts on the lesser charges after having considered the evidence for more than seven hours.

Sykes and Lewis were shot to death shortly after they left the tavern. Lilly claimed he shot in self defense. He said he went outside the tavern to put a pistol in his automobile and the two men came at him, one of them with a knife.

Strauss Is Named Commerce Chief

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Commerce Sinclair Weeks resigned today, and Adm. Lewis L. Strauss was named to succeed him in the Cabinet.

The White House announced that:

1. Weeks has tendered his resignation to be effective not later than Nov. 10 because of "pressing business, personal and family considerations" which he said made his return to Boston imperative.

2. President Eisenhower is making a recess appointment of Strauss, 62, who has been assistant to the President on peaceful uses of atomic energy since his recent retirement from the chairmanship of the Atomic Energy Commission.

An exchange of letters between Weeks and the President was made public.

Weeks' letter dated Oct. 22, tendered his resignation. He recalled that he had conversed with Eisenhower on his departure several times and assured Eisenhower that in the future "if I can serve you in any way, you have only to call upon me."

The President accepted in a letter headed "Dear Sinny." He expressed sorrow that the departure of the New England industrialist was now so imminent, and added: "I appreciate that you have already put off this unhappy event for quite some time, much to my benefit and the administration's."

"I accept your resignation as of Nov. 10 with keen regret that it will interrupt the warm and close association we have had."

As long ago as 1954, Strauss said his AEC post would be "my last public job on earth."

He first went on the commission in 1946 during the Truman administration. He had a big hand in development of the hydrogen bomb, and originated the development of the detection system that informed the United States of Russia's nuclear explosions.

In the Commerce job he could offer background experience ranging from that of traveling salesman to banker. As a youth of 21 he was selling shoes for his father's firm when he took a job with Herbert Hoover's Belgian Relief Commission. He left a New York banking career to go on the AEC. He is 62.

The Coast Guard Cutter Nemesis docked this morning with Turner. The Jackie C. took Devane's body to Tampa.

80 Nova Scotians Reported Safe After Rock Fall

SPRINGHILL, N.S. (AP) — A violent shift of rock in the depths of a coal mine today trapped 91 men, six of them supervisors. Hope of rescue grew dimmer by the hour.

Eighty miners had reached safety. One body was recovered. A company spokesman belatedly announced that six supervisors were with 85 men still trapped hours after tons of rock and coal had tumbled down from tunnel roofs, choking the passageways.

With tears in his eyes, the vice president and general manager of the Dominion Coal Co., H. M. C. Gordon, told newsmen that there is no hope for miners trapped on two levels of the mine. He added there is only a glimmer of hope for those on the third level.

Rescue workers have determined the location of 55 men trapped by fallen rock. But they have been unable to find the other 36, and it is for these that there remains some small measure of hope.

A company official said a barrier of gas prevented rescue crew from reaching 55 of the men who had been working 13,000 feet from the pithead. The others were believed scattered in other parts of the mine.

Through the night and into the morning, survivors trickled out of the mine portal and through lines of waiting, anxious relatives.

Some of the survivors were injured and had to be helped or carried out by rescue crews.

A silent crowd shivered in a cold drizzle through the night as five-man teams of draggermen—volunteer mine rescue workers—cleared rock and debris from dust-choked tunnels.

The draggermen wore respirators. One of the first survivors to come out said the "bump"—the miners' name for underground rock shifts of explosive force—had smashed the mine ventilation system and pockets of deadly gas were forming.

The mine is the No. 2 colliery of the Cumberland Railway and Coal Co., a subsidiary of the Dominion Steel and Coal Corp., now-closed Cumberland No. 4, where an explosion and gas killed 39 persons in November 1956.

The worst mine accident in this town of 7,000 near the New Brunswick border was an explosion in 1891 that killed 125. Canada's worst mine disaster was at Hillcrest, Alta., in 1941, when 193 were killed.

The bump occurred at 8:05 p.m. Dishes tumbled from shelves in Springhill and houses also shook 14 miles away in Maccan. Veteran miners called it the worst in memory. Six smaller bumps between last March and Sept. 1 injured 14 men. The cause of bumps often is undetermined.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Some Asian flu outbreaks are expected again this winter, Dr. Leroy E. Burney, head of the Public Health Service said today.

He made the prediction in answering questions after speaking to the annual conference of the Assn. of State and Territorial Health Officers.

Burney said the recurrence of the disease is not expected to be of the same widespread scope as last year. He called attention to the availability of vaccine to protect against the flu.

Ohio Cities Seeking New Bell Offer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Representatives of the Ohio Bell Telephone Co. and Ohio cities fighting the company's request for a 28-million-dollar a year rate hike maneuvered closer to another negotiation session Thursday.

Ferd Pickens, Columbus utilities director and chairman of the city representatives, said they would meet with the company again provided the company has a concrete offer to make.

L. T. Pendleton, Ohio Bell's vice president in charge of revenue, said he did not know if the company would request the meeting, but "we're going to think about it."

Meanwhile a Utilities Commission hearing went into its fourth day today with more testimony from company experts backing up its claim to the 28-million-dollar rate boost.

Any meetings between the company and city representatives to negotiate a settlement would not take place before a meeting scheduled in Cleveland next Thursday of city representatives.

Pickens said the meeting would map out the cities' defense for the Utilities Commission hearing.

RTW Voting To Be 'Close'

Washington Observers Study Issue in Ohio

WASHINGTON (AP)—Washington spokesmen for both sides of the "right-to-work" question agree that the proposition is in for a real horse race in Ohio.

But having said that, each then claims victory for his side.

These views—based on reports from workers on the spot in Ohio—were expressed by William T. Harrison and Robert Nixon.

Harrison is executive secretary of the National Right to Work Committee. Nixon is public relations man for the National Council for Industrial Peace, which is fighting the labor contract regulation.

Why does each believe he's on the winning side in Ohio, where the proposal is being submitted to the voters in the Nov. 4 election?

Harrison told a reporter that, aside from his reports, he thinks the voting pattern in previous years in Ohio favors such a law.

"They have voted consistently against pressure from outside people," he said.

"Take the election of Sen. Robert A. Taft in 1950. They voted Taft in mainly because of pressure (from unions). They voted down supplementary unemployment benefits for union members—again because of pressure."

Harrison also contends Gov. C. William O'Neill's stand for "right-to-work" will help.

"I think it will help O'Neill some, too," he said.

You get an entirely different version at the National Council for Industrial Peace.

"A survey taken in Ohio by our people two or three weeks ago showed 38 per cent for 'right-to-work' and 38 per cent against and 24 per cent undecided," Nixon said.

"But the figures on the undecided, who will decide the issue, is now narrowing, and our people think they're going to win in Ohio by a reasonable margin."

"One reason they think this is because Ohio in this off-year election has the greatest voter registration in its history."

"Now the Republicans, as you know, have got out the vote pretty well in Ohio. They've had their full registration. For that reason, our people think this additional registration is Democratic."

Demon Rum Trotter Sold to Syndicate For $200,000

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Demon Rum, outstanding trotter the last three years, has been sold to a syndicate for $200,000, second highest price ever paid for a trotting horse.

Robert Critchfield, owner of Gay Acres Farm of Wooster, Ohio, where Demon Rum will enter the stallion ranks, disclosed the sale. Critchfield and other members of the syndicate purchased the trotter from Harrison and Shields of Pittsburgh, Pa.

Demon Rum was foaled and raised at the Gay Acres Farm. Critchfield also owned Demon Hanover, sire of the new stallion, but sold him a year ago for $500,000, the record price for a trotter. Demon Rum had been retired as a racer earlier this year when he suffered a minor fracture of the sesamoid bone.

City Council Accepts Plat Of New Baker Subdivision

City Council, at an adjourned session Friday morning, approved the plat of the proposed 48-lot G. D. Baker subdivision, adjoining Belle Aire elementary school, and dedicated two new streets and five extensions of existing streets.

The action was taken as an emergency measure after Council filed a letter from Baker agreeing to cooperate in proposed new subdivision requirements which Council is drafting into an ordinance.

This means that streets in the new subdivision will be constructed according to city specifications, and the sewer system will handle sanitary drainage only. Storm water will be carried into a county ditch which runs through the property.

The plat includes extensions of Albion and Warren Aves., Comfort Lane, High St. and Nelson Pl. Two new streets to be known as Frank St. and Belle Aire Pl. will be created.

Public hearing on the new subdivision ordinance will be held at 7:30 p. m. Nov. 12 in the City Council chamber.

Rockefeller, Nixon Display New Harmony

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Vice President Nixon and Nelson Rockefeller, potential Republican presidential rivals for 1960, breakfasted together today. Both insisted they weren't even thinking about things on the other side of this year's election.

The harmony demonstration was hastily set up in New York City after an episode Thursday night in which Rockefeller, GOP candidate for governor, didn't attend a dinner for Nixon.

Afterward the vice president hurried away to catch a plane for Wisconsin to carry on his slambang campaigning for election of a Republican Congress in the voting a week from Tuesday.

Some Democrats were turning campaign guns more directly on President Eisenhower as leader of their opposition, with an accusation that he has shirked leadership in the school integration controversy.

Nixon himself set the stage for the teamwork display with Rockefeller. He went out of his way in a New York broadcast Thursday night to praise Rockefeller as an able administrator who offers New York "dynamic leadership."

Some observers had read into Rockefeller's absence from the dinner an implication of coolness between him and Nixon.

But the explanation from Rockefeller—who is wooing some of the Democratic voters Nixon has been lambasting as radicals—was that he simply had a long-standing prior date. His opponent is Gov. Averell Harriman, a favorite of Democrats who call themselves liberals.

Meanwhile, former President Harry S. Truman accused Eisenhower of sidestepping a "moral responsibility" to back up the Supreme Court's school integration ruling.

The result, Truman told a Democratic fund-raising dinner in Boston, was a wave of violence by "crackpots and extremists."

Bartender Ruled Guilty In Dual Slaying

LEBANON, Ohio (AP)—Carl Lilly, 52, of Foster, a part time bartender, was convicted in Warren County Common Pleas Court Thursday night on two counts of manslaughter in the fatal shooting of two men outside the tavern where Lilly worked.

The shooting occurred last July 26.

The victims were James Harvey Sykes, 34, father of five children, and John Lewis Jr., 31, father of three. The men were neighbors in Loveland Park.

Lilly had been charged with second degree murder but the jury returned the verdicts on the lesser charges after having considered the evidence for more than seven hours.

Sykes and Lewis were shot to death shortly after they left the tavern. Lilly claimed he shot in self defense. He said he went outside the tavern to put a pistol in his automobile and the two men came at him, one of them with a knife.

Pike Countian Pleads Innocent

WAVERLY, Ohio (AP)—Odd Woodruff, 44, pleaded innocent today to a second-degree murder charge stemming from the fatal shooting of a neighbor, Guy Clark, 50.

The victim was found shot to death Tuesday night on a country road near Pikeeton, near where both men lived.

Sheriff Jesse H. Foster said he learned both men had been drinking together. But he said he has found no motive for the shooting.

Foster said Woodruff will be taken to London Prison Farm next week for lie detector tests.

Woodruff was bound to the grand jury at his arraignment before Pike County Judge George O. Partridge. He was ordered held in jail under $5,000 bond.

Strauss Is Named Commerce Chief

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Commerce Sinclair Weeks resigned today, and Adm. Lewis L. Strauss was named to succeed him in the Cabinet.

The White House announced that:

1. Weeks has tendered his resignation to be effective not later than Nov. 10 because of "pressing business, personal and family considerations" which he said made his return to Boston imperative.

2. President Eisenhower is making a recess appointment of Strauss, 62, who has been assistant to the President on peaceful uses of atomic energy since his recent retirement from the chairmanship of the Atomic Energy Commission.

An exchange of letters between Weeks and the President was made public.

Weeks' letter dated Oct. 22, tendered his resignation. He recalled that he had conversed with Eisenhower on his departure several times and assured Eisenhower that in the future "if I can serve you in any way, you have only to call upon me."

The President accepted in a letter headed "Dear Sinny." He expressed sorrow that the departure of the New England industrialist was now so imminent, and added: "I appreciate that you have already put off this unhappy event for quite some time, much to my benefit and the administration's."

"I accept your resignation as of Nov. 10 with keen regret that it will interrupt the warm and close association we have had."

As long ago as 1954, Strauss said his AEC post would be "my last public job on earth."

He first went on the commission in 1946 during the Truman administration. He had a big hand in development of the hydrogen bomb, and originated the development of the detection system that informed the United States of Russia's nuclear explosions.

In the Commerce job he could offer background experience ranging from that of traveling salesman to banker. As a youth of 21 he was selling shoes for his father's firm when he took a job with Herbert Hoover's Belgian Relief Commission. He left a New York banking career to go on the AEC. He is 62.

Ohio Cities Seeking New Bell Offer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Representatives of the Ohio Bell Telephone Co. and Ohio cities fighting the company's request for a 28-million-dollar a year rate hike maneuvered closer to another negotiation session Thursday.

Ferd Pickens, Columbus utilities director and chairman of the city representatives, said they would meet with the company again provided the company has a concrete offer to make.

L. T. Pendleton, Ohio Bell's vice president in charge of revenue, said he did not know if the company would request the meeting, but "we're going to think about it."

Meanwhile a Utilities Commission hearing went into its fourth day today with more testimony from company experts backing up its claim to the 28-million-dollar rate boost.

Any meetings between the company and city representatives to negotiate a settlement would not take place before a meeting scheduled in Cleveland next Thursday of city representatives.

Pickens said the meeting would map out the cities' defense for the Utilities Commission hearing.

Dulles Sees Red Roadblocks In Formosa Peace Efforts

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles charged today the Chinese Communists are trying to "throw roadblocks" in the way of efforts to pacify the Formosa Strait.

Dulles made the accusation in a statement at the White House. He had just reported to President Eisenhower on his conference with President Chiang Kai-shek of Nationalist China.

The secretary said the Communists are trying to achieve domination of the western Pacific by combined use of military and propaganda means but he declared his confidence that their efforts will be defeated.

"All of the free countries of the Far East increasingly realize that Chinese Communism is a mortal danger," he said.

"They are heartened by the manifest power of the United States and our stand against retreat in the face of armed aggression."

"The ill of the free peoples of Asia to resist Chinese Communism intrusions is, I judge, more solid than ever before."

Returning from his conferences with Chiang, Dulles reached here after midnight. He reported to Eisenhower after a few hours of rest.

He and Chiang had joined Thursday in a statement in which the Nationalists renounced the use of force as a means of returning to the Red-ruled mainland.

Dulles was reported by informed officials to have obtained from Chiang a conditional promise to cut his forces on the Quemoy and Matsu islands. The conditions were that he get more modern weapons and that the Chinese Communists institute a long-term cease-fire.

Dulles himself declined to discuss the reports.

The Red Chinese have refused thus far to make any agreement regarding a halt to their artillery barrages on Quemoy, the Nationalist-held island just off the China mainland.

80 Nova Scotians Reported Safe After Rock Fall

SPRINGHILL, N.S. (AP)—A violent shift of rock in the depths of a coal mine today trapped 91 men, six of them supervisors. Hope of rescue grew dimmer by the hour.

Eighty miners had reached safety. One body was recovered. A company spokesman belatedly announced that six supervisors were with 85 men still trapped hours after tons of rock and coal had tumbled down from tunnel roofs, choking the passageways.

With tears in his eyes, the vice president and general manager of the Dominion Coal Co., H. M. C. Gordon, told newsmen that there is no hope for miners trapped on two levels of the mine. He added there is only a glimmer of hope for those on the third level.

Rescue workers have determined the location of 55 men trapped by fallen rock. But they have been unable to find the other 36, and it is for these that there remains some small measure of hope.

A company official said a barrier of gas prevented rescue crew from reaching 55 of the men who had been working 13,000 feet from the pithead. The others were believed scattered in other parts of the mine.

Through the night and into the morning, survivors trickled out of the mine portal and through lines of waiting, anxious relatives.

Some of the survivors were injured and had to be helped or carried out by rescue crews.

A silent crowd shivered in a cold drizzle through the night as five-man teams of draegermen—volunteer mine rescue workers—cleared rock and debris from dust-choked tunnels.

The draegermen wore respirators. One of the first survivors to come out said the "bump"—the miners' name for underground rock shifts of explosive force—had smashed the mine ventilation system and pockets of deadly gas were forming.

The mine is the No. 2 colliery of the Cumberland Railway and Coal Co., a subsidiary of the Dominion Steel and Coal Corp. now-closed Cumberland No. 4, where an explosion and gas killed 39 persons in November 1956.

The worst mine accident in this town of 7,000 near the New Brunswick border was an explosion in 1891 that killed 125. Canada's worst mine disaster was at Hillcrest, Alta., in 1941, when 193 were killed.

The bump occurred at 8:05 p.m. Dishes tumbled from shelves in Springhill and houses also shook 14 miles away in Maccan. Veteran miners called it the worst in memory. Six smaller bumps between last March and Sept. 1 injured 14 men. The cause of bumps often is undetermined.

Truck Driver Amputates His Mangled Arm

CELINA, Ohio (AP)—A Missouri truck driver borrowed a pen knife and cut off his badly mangled left arm while it was pinned in the wreckage of his truck Thursday night.

Richard Wulferf, 27, of Ballwin, Mo., was reported in fair condition today in St. Rita's Hospital at Lima following the amputation.

Doctors said they do not know now if they will have to amputate his right leg, which also was mangled.

Mercer County Coroner Dr. Donald Fox said Wulferf told him he fell asleep while driving a load of television sets from St. Louis to New York City for Trans-America Truck Lines, St. Louis. His truck hit a bridge abutment on Ohio 29, six miles west of Celina, and the trailer came to rest on top of the cab.

Wulferf's arm was pinned to the wreckage, and the bone, which was broken, pinched the main artery and kept him from bleeding to death.

Several other truckers came to his aid but were unable to free the arm. One gave Wulferf a pocket knife and the injured driver cut off what was left of the mangled limb.

The arm was amputated at the shoulder.

Symposiarchs Take Picture Trip Abroad

Symposiarchs were taken on a colorful picture trip across the Atlantic and to many places in Europe and England by Dr. J. H. Persinger following the chapter's regular dinner meeting which was held this month at the Country Club.

Dr. Persinger, introduced by William M. Junk, showed the more than 200 color slides he made when he and his family toured Europe about a year ago.

After a brief outline of the arrangements for the tour, Dr. Persinger described each scene as the slides were shown.

During the business meeting which preceded the program, plans for the chapter's Christmas dance on Dec. 19 at the Country Club were discussed.

Inasmuch as this is the chapter's one big social event of the year and includes the ladies, the wives of the committee members become unofficial, but essential, members of the committee. On this year's committee are Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Vollette, Dr. and Mrs. Hugh W. Payton, Mr. and Mrs. Howard S. Harper, Dr. and Mrs. Byers Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer N. Reed and Mr. and Mrs. Harford Hendricks.

Hosts for the Thursday night meeting were John Bath, chapter president, Harris Willis and Dr. James E. Rose.

Mark J. Schaeper was a guest at the meeting.

City Schools Visited

After exchanging visits in the afternoon, another session was held in the high school auditorium with several teachers. The visitors were given an opportunity to ask the teachers questions.

After Board President Elmer Reed welcomed the visitors and Chamber of Commerce President Walter Morrow spoke at the opening session in the auditorium, Supt. Smith gave a talk illustrated with slides. He used slides to show financial problems a school administrator faces. He also showed scenes taken by Frederick Cluff of the high school faculty city school classrooms and other school activities.

During his talk, Smith commented that if the one-million dollar does not pass in the November election the school year may be shortened.

On the morning assembly was a musical program presented by the high school choir and the B-Nine-Teens, a high school girls' singing group, directed by Grover Baber.

Several of the attending community leaders said "it was a day well spent." Two said they thought ELP Days should be held more often.

Smith said he was pleased with the program and that his only regret was the lack of attendance for what he said was a "very enjoyable program."

Those attending were George Blackmore, Ray Brandenburg, Joe Campbell, Jim Chakeres, Clarence Cooper, Frank H. Alexander, Mrs. Phyllis Thornhill, Jane Coffman, Otis Core, Mrs. C. E. Craig, L. S. Everhart, A. H. Hutton, Max Lawrence, W. H. Limes, Art Vetter, Walter Morrow, Don Murdock, Robert Parish, L. J. Poe, Charles Reinke, Walter Rettig, Paul Rodenfels, Jim Schwartz, Dewey Seidler, Howard Wright, William Stoughton, R. W. Tice, E. H. Warner and Don Wood.

Elmer Reed, Milbourne L. Flee and Robert Terhune were the three members of the board education who greeted the guests when they entered the high school. Miss Anne

Reserve Bank Orders Hike in Interest Rate

WASHINGTON (AP) — A new increase in the Federal Reserve System's discount rate goes into effect today. Financial circles doubt it will have any major impact on other interest charges.

The Federal Reserve Board announced late Thursday that the discount rate would be increased to 2½ per cent in 5 of the 12 reserve districts — Philadelphia, Minneapolis, Richmond, St. Louis and Dallas. Other districts will maintain the old 2 per cent rate for a time but are expected to adopt the increase later.

A hike in the discount, or interest charged when member banks borrow money from the reserve system, usually is intended to tighten credit and fight inflation.

A board spokesman indicated this latest increase—the second in about two months—was based on another consideration: a desire by the board to bring the rate closer into line with other short-term interest charges.

The board normally keeps the discount rate higher than the bill rate, to discourage banks from borrowing to buy bills.

Wall Streeters said the increase had been expected and that market prices had adjusted to it in advance. One bond expert said the increase might give an upward jolt to short-term rates. However, he said this would be only temporary, and should not affect intermediate and long-term bond issues. New York markets were closed when the announcement came.

Athens Liquor Store Chief Claimed Drunk

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—James C. Mulligan, 54-year-old manager of State Liquor store No. 28 at Athens, appeared for work in an intoxicated condition on three successive days, State Liquor Director Floyd C. Moon said today.

That is one reason Mulligan will be removed from his $380-a-month job Oct. 31, Moon said.

Mulligan lives near Athens. The order of removal filed with the State Civil Service Commission says Mulligan was intoxicated when he appeared for work Sept. 15, 16, and 17, as well as July 3 and Aug. 23.

The order contends that Mulligan was inefficient, insubordinate and neglectful of his duties.

Mulligan permitted his wife, Gladys, to work on store records behind the counter, contrary to liquor department regulations and orders of his district supervisor, the removal order states.

In addition, Mulligan failed to correct a number of weekly reports, the order says.

Rail Car's Cargo Of Big Shells Blows

RIFLE, Colo. (AP) — A freight car filled with deadly eight-inch howitzer shells blew up in Debeque Canyon several miles west of here Thursday. The explosion was heard for miles.

A Denver & Rio Grande Western Railroad spokesman said the blast was caused by sparks from a broken journal.

No one was injured on the 68-car train. Some unexploded shells were scattered along the track, and streamliners were delayed until late afternoon. A four-man demolition team from the Rocky Mountain Arsenal near Denver went to the explosion scene to remove unexploded shells.

Toledoan Irked By Uninvited House 'Guest'

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — Ward Schlacter is convinced he's got a guest in the house—an uninvited one at that.

Schlacter, 25, sat down to eat dinner with his wife Thursday night when all the lights in the house went out.

Flashlight in hand, he ventured into the basement where he found the fusebox had been tampered with and the side door curtains had been ripped down. He suspected burglars and called police.

Patrolmen Robert Telton and Richard Scobie arrived. They decided it was no burglar, when they spotted animal footprints in the basement and side entrance hall and toothmarks and wood shavings near the door.

Telton, Scobie and Schlacter "solved" the mystery by concluding a domestic coon has been residing in a crawl space above the ceiling of the basement.

Disturbed when Schlacter recently wired his hi-fi set, the coon apparently retaliated by chewing a hole in the ceiling leading to the crawl space and invading the fuse box.

Juveniles To Pay For Broken Aerial

Seven juveniles, ranging in age from 12 to 15, were ordered by Juvenile Probation Officer Joe McMullen Friday morning to make restitution for a radio aerial they destroyed Tuesday night.

The youths were not taken into custody, he said, but were given stern warnings about further vandalism. McMullen said only one of the youths broke the aerial from a parked car but the others were in the gang.

Police said they would follow any leads given them concerning vandalism.

Key Issues Show Gains on Stock Mart

NEW YORK (AP) — Stocks shrugged off initial easiness and moved higher early this afternoon. There still were a number of losers.

A majority of key issues gained fractions to about a point but in a few instances gains extended beyond that. Steels, rails and aircrafts were among the better acting groups.

Trading expanded a bit from Thursday. The ticker ran behind floor transactions briefly at the opening and then again at mid-morning, when a mild buying flurry pushed up prices.

Selling at the start was attributed in part to a hike in the discount rate by five federal reserve banks. This selling never was very urgent and quickly dried up.

Schenley gained nearly 2 points, celebrating four extra stock dividends.

Northern Pacific rose more than a point. Great Northern ran up a point.

Steel company executives continue to emphasize improving demand and steel stocks generally advanced. Republic was the leader, up nearly a point.

American Motors stood out in the auto group as auto sales in the first 20 days of October rose far above a year ago. The stock raced ahead more than 2 points.

The aircrafts did well. A 5,000-share block of Martin crossed the tape at 34½, up ½, and the stock added a little later.

Corporate bonds were lower in quiet trading. U.S. government issues advanced in moderately active dealings.

Annexation Talks Tonight

City Manager J. David Foell and members of Council will confer with property owners and interested parties in the North Shore and Rosemont Ct. areas Friday night relative to the annexation program which will be up for decision by Union Township voters at the November election.

The meeting is scheduled at 7:30 p. m. in the Church of All Nations on N. Forest St. The two suburbs are included in the annexation plan formulated by Council.

$30,000 To Be Used To Advertise State

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The state controlling board has released $30,000 to advertise Ohio's advantages to industry and tourists. Gov. C. William O'Neill said $14,000 would be used to buy space in three business and industrial magazines. The balance would be used to advertise Ohio's tourist attractions in 22 newspapers.

Symposiarchs Take Picture Trip Abroad

Symposiarchs were taken on a colorful picture trip across the Atlantic and to many places in Europe and England by Dr. J. H. Persinger following the chapter's regular dinner meeting which was held this month at the Country Club.

Dr. Persinger, introduced by William M. Junk, showed the more than 200 color slides he made when he and his family toured Europe about a year ago. After a brief outline of the arrangements for the tour, Dr. Persinger described each scene as the slides were shown.

During the business meeting which preceded the program, plans for the chapter's Christmas dance on Dec. 19 at the Country Club were discussed.

Inasmuch as this is the chapter's one big social event of the year and includes the ladies, the wives of the committee members become unofficial, but essential, members of the committee. On this year's committee are Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Vollette, Dr. and Mrs. Hugh W. Payton, Mr. and Mrs. Howard S. Harper, Dr. and Mrs. Byers Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer N. Reed and Mr. and Mrs. Harford Hankins.

Hosts for the Thursday night meeting were John Bath, chapter president, Harris Willis and Dr. James E. Rose.

Mark J. Schaeper was a guest at the meeting.

City Schools Visited

After exchanging visits in the afternoon, another session was held in the high school auditorium with several teachers. The visitors were given an opportunity to ask the teachers questions.

After Board President Elmer Reed welcomed the visitors and Chamber of Commerce President Walter Morrow spoke at the opening session in the auditorium, Supt. Smith gave a talk illustrated with slides. He used slides to show financial problems a school administrator faces. He also showed scenes taken by Frederick Cluff of the high school faculty city school classrooms and other school activities.

During his talk, Smith commented that if the one-mill levy does not pass in the November election the school year maybe shortened.

On the morning assembly was a musical program presented by the high school choir and the B-Nine-Teens, a high school girls' singing group, directed by Grover Baber.

Several of the attending community leaders said "it was a day well spent." Two said they thought EIP Days should be held more often.

Smith said he was pleased with the program and that his only regret was the lack of attendance. For what he said was a "very enjoyable program."

THOSE attending were George Elakmore, Ray Brandenberg, Joe Campbell, Jim Chakeres, Clarence Cooper, Frank H. Alexander, Mrs. Phyllis Thornhill, Jane Coffman, Otis Core, Mrs. C. E. Craig L. S. Everhart, A. H. Hutton, Max Lawrence, W. H. Limes, Art Vetter, Walter Morrow, Don Murdock, Robert Parish, L. J. Poe, Charles Reinke, Walter Rettig, Paul Rodenfelds, Jim Schwartz, Dewey Sheidler, Howard Wright, William Stoughton, R. W. Tice, E. H. Warner and Don Wood.

Elmer Reed, Milbourne L. Flee and Robert Terhune were the three members of the board education who greeted the guests when they entered the high school. Miss Anne

Reserve Bank Orders Hike in Interest Rate

WASHINGTON (AP) — A new increase in the Federal Reserve System's discount rate goes into effect today. Financial circles doubt it will have any major impact on other interest charges.

The Federal Reserve Board announced late Thursday that the discount rate would be increased to 2 1/2 per cent in 5 of the 12 reserve districts — Philadelphia, Minneapolis, Richmond, St. Louis and Dallas. Other districts will maintain the old 2 per cent rate for a time but are expected to adopt the increase later.

A hike in the discount, or interest charged when member banks borrow money from the reserve system, usually is intended to tighten credit and fight inflation.

A board spokesman indicated this latest increase—the second in about two months—was based on another consideration: a desire by the board to bring the rate closer into line with other short-term interest charges.

The board normally keeps the discount rate higher than the bill rate, to discourage banks from borrowing to buy bills.

Wall Streeters said the increase had been expected and that market prices had adjusted to it in advance. One bond expert said the increase might give an upward jolt to short-term rates. However, he said this would be only temporary, and should not affect intermediate and long-term bond issues. New York markets were closed when the announcement came.

The auto-parts plant employs about 4,500 workers.

Athens Liquor Store Chief Claimed Drunk

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—James C. Mulligan, 54-year-old manager of State Liquor store No. 28 at Athens, appeared for work in an intoxicated condition on three successive days, State Liquor Director Floyd C. Moon said today.

That is one reason Mulligan will be removed from his $380-a-month job Oct. 31, Moon said. Mulligan lives near Athens.

The order of removal filed with the State Civil Service Commission says Mulligan was intoxicated when he appeared for work Sept. 15, 16, and 17, as well as July 3 and Aug. 23.

The order contends that Mulligan was inefficient, insubordinate and neglectful of his duties.

Mulligan permitted his wife, Gladys, to work on store records behind the counter, contrary to liquor department regulations and orders of his district supervisor, the removal order states.

In addition, Mulligan failed to correct a number of weekly reports, the order says.

Rail Car's Cargo Of Big Shells Blows

RIFLE, Colo. (AP) — A freight car filled with deadly eight-inch howitzer shells blew up in Debeque Canyon several miles west of here Thursday. The explosion was heard for miles.

A Denver & Rio Grande Western Railroad spokesman said the blast was caused by sparks from a broken journal.

No one was injured on the 68-car train. Some unexploded shells were scattered along the track, and streamliners were delayed until late afternoon. A four-man demolition team from the Rocky Mountain Arsenal near Denver went to the explosion scene to remove unexploded shells.

Toledoan Irked By Uninvited House 'Guest'

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — Ward Schlacter is convinced he's got a guest in the house—an uninvited one at that.

Schlacter, 25, sat down to eat dinner with his wife Thursday night when all the lights in the house went out.

Flashlight in hand, he ventured into the basement where he found the fusebox had been tampered with and the side door curtains had been ripped down. He suspected burglars and called police.

Patrolmen Robert Telton and Richard Scobie arrived. They decided it was no burglar, when they spotted animal footprints in the basement and side entrance hall and teethmarks and wood shavings near the door.

Telton, Scobie and Schlacter "solved" the mystery by concluding a domestic coon has been residing in a crawl space above the ceiling of the basement.

Disturbed when Schlacter recently wired his hi-fi set, the coon apparently retaliated by chewing a hole in the ceiling leading to the crawl space and invading the fuse box.

Juveniles To Pay For Broken Aerial

Seven juveniles, ranging in age from 12 to 15, were ordered by Juvenile Probation Officer Joe McMullen Friday morning to make restitution for a radio aerial they destroyed Tuesday night.

The youths were not taken into custody, he said, but were given stern warnings about further vandalism. McMullen said only one of the youths broke the aerial from a parked car but the others were in the gang.

Police said they would follow any leads given them concerning vandalism.

Key Issues Show Gains on Stock Mart

NEW YORK (AP) — Stocks shrugged off initial easiness and moved higher early this afternoon. There still were a number of losers.

A majority of key issues gained fractions to about a point but in a few instances gains extended beyond that. Steels, rails and aircrafts were among the better acting groups.

Trading expanded a bit from Thursday. The ticker ran behind floor transactions briefly at the opening and then again at mid-morning, when a mild buying flurry pushed up prices.

Selling at the start was attributed in part to a hike in the discount rate by five federal reserve banks. This selling never was very urgent and quickly dried up.

Schenley gained nearly 2 points, celebrating four extra stock dividends.

Northern Pacific rose more than a point. Great Northern ran up a point.

Steel company executives continue to emphasize improving demand and steel stocks generally advanced. Republic was the leader, up nearly a point.

American Motors stood out in the auto group as auto sales in the first 20 days of October rose far above a year ago. The stock raced ahead more than 2 points.

The aircrafts did well. A 5,000-share block of Martin crossed the tape at 34 1/2, up 1/2, and the stock added a little later.

Corporate bonds were lower in quiet trading. U.S. government issues advanced in moderately active dealings.

Annexation Talks Tonight

City Manager J. David Foell and members of Council will confer with property owners and interested parties in the North Shore and Rosemont Ct. areas Friday night relative to the annexation program which will be up for decision by Union Township voters at the November election.

The meeting is scheduled at 7:30 p. m. in the Church of All Nations on N. Forest St. The two suburbs are included in the annexation plan formulated by Council.

$30,000 To Be Used To Advertise State

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The state controlling board has released $30,000 to advertise Ohio's advantages to industry and tourists. Gov. C. William O'Neill said $14,000 would be used to buy space in three business and industrial magazines. The balance would be used to advertise Ohio's tourist attractions in 22 newspapers.

No Solidarity Is Now Seen As Challenge to Khrushchev

By ROY ESSOYAN
Associated Press Staff Writer
Nikita S. Khrushchev, head of the Soviet party and government, is a man of tremendous agility. He has a seemingly tireless energy, wide ranging ability and that all-important Communist knack of knowing when to jump. He has made more enemies in Russia in the last few years than any other Soviet leader except Stalin. But so far he is still in complete control. His control has been challenged. But when he can't lick them he joins them. He uses no terror in the Stalin pattern. His enemies are still alive. His agility vaulted him to the top in the scramble after Stalin's death, and has kept him at the top despite bloopers and reverses that would have felled a less nimble man. Khrushchev has played many roles since he came to power. His early characterizations were popular. When he played the clown the Russians roared. They laughed at him but in their way they loved him, made up anecdotes about him and slapped their thighs. Then in February 1956 he denounced Stalin and a hush fell over the land, broken only by the cooing of orators and party agitators rallying the masses. After 30 years of Stalinism the new line was hard to swallow whole. As the people slowly digested it a new excitement stirred the country. It stirred the people of Poland and Hungary even more. They rioted in Poznan, revolted in Hungary. Khrushchev reared back. At a New Year's banquet in the Kremlin's gold and marble St. George's Hall, Khrushchev announced that Stalin was a great man after all. The cynics smiled. "We knew it all the time," they said. And Khrushchev even joked about it, and the people laughed. They fell a little silent again in June and October 1957 when he started purging his onetime partners in the Kremlin. For a spell the ghost of Stalin seemed about to rise in earnest. But the crisis passed and Khrushchev bounced back to clown again. The Russians started to laugh again, but now they listened more seriously, for Khrushchev was obviously a very serious man. People who saw him right after what is generally considered to be his latest reversal—when he returned from Peiping and switched signals on the East-West summit conference he had been fervently espousing—said he looked gray and shaken. But they said he has bounced right back and, never idle or timid, has ordered a complete overhaul of the Soviet education system. The plan is far from popular with the Russians. But neither was his original "virgin lands" development program, nor his drastic decentralization of industrial and economic management, nor his decision to abolish machine-tractor stations and set up a new pricing system for agriculture produce. Each of Khrushchev's purges and programs has created ene-

Pause to Refresh Brings Arrest

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—Two men were arrested today as they sipped Cokes in a drug store with an estimated $2,000 worth of merchandise stolen from the store stored in a station wagon outside. Police identified the pair as Herman Kirk, 39, Toledo, and Walter L. Binder, 35, Cleveland. Police said the men agreed that their pause to refresh lasted a bit too long. Officers quoted them as saying they are unemployed and decided to burglarize the pharmacy. Patrolman Thomas Kuchar ski and Howard Schlegel, who spotted the men from the street, said their station wagon contained 327 cartons of cigarettes, watches, lighters, cigars and cameras. Kansas has more land in farms than any other state except Texas. One thousand of Minnesota's 10,000 lakes are in Otter Tail County.

No Solidarity Is Now Seen As Challenge to Khrushchev

By ROY ESSOYAN
Associated Press Staff Writer
Nikita S. Khrushchev, head of the Soviet party and government, is a man of tremendous agility. He has a seemingly tireless energy, wide ranging ability and that all-important Communist knack of knowing when to jump. He has made more enemies in Russia in the last few years than any other Soviet leader except Stalin. But so far he is still in complete control. His control has been challenged. But when he can't lick them he joins them. He uses no terror in the Stalin pattern. His enemies are still alive. His agility vaulted him to the top in the scramble after Stalin's death, and has kept him at the top despite bloopers and reverses that would have felled a less nimble man. Khrushchev has played many roles since he came to power. His early characterizations were popular. When he played the clown the Russians roared. They laughed at him but in their way they loved him, made up anecdotes about him and slapped their thighs. Then in February 1956 he denounced Stalin and a hush fell over the land, broken only by the cooing singsong of orators and party agitators rallying the masses. After 30 years of Stalinism the new line was hard to swallow whole. As the people slowly digested it a new excitement stirred the country. It stirred the people of Poland and Hungary even more. They rioted in Poznan, revolted in Hungary. Khrushchev reared back. At a New Year's banquet in the Kremlin's gold and marble St. George's Hall, Khrushchev announced that Stalin was a great man after all. The cynics smiled. "We knew it all the time," they said. And Khrushchev even joked about it, and the people laughed. They fell a little silent again in June and October 1957 when he started purging his onetime partners in the Kremlin. For a spell the ghost of Stalin seemed about to rise in earnest. But the crisis passed and Khrushchev bounced back to clown again. The Russians started to laugh again, but now they listened more seriously, for Khrushchev was obviously a very serious man. People who saw him right after what is generally considered to be his latest reversal—when he returned from Peiping and switched signals on the East-West summit conference he had been fervently espousing—said he looked gray and shaken. But they said he has bounced right back and, never idle or timid, has ordered a complete overhaul of the Soviet education system. The plan is far from popular with the Russians. But neither was his original "virgin lands" development program, nor his drastic decentralization of industrial and economic management, nor his decision to abolish machine-tractor stations and set up a new pricing system for agriculture produce. Each of Khrushchev's purges and programs has created ene-

Time To Meet Apathy "Head-on"

To those who see and listen to some of the sounder things presented through TV and radio, it must have been evident that some recent remarks by President Eisenhower should have more than passing attention.

When he was asked for comment on the frequent high-powered claims being made by Democratic leaders and other people who prefer to listen to criticism of Republicans in government rather than any other type of program, the President responded with fervor.

He declared he had heard reports of Republican apathy, and to him they were "incomprehensible." He described his administration "as dedicated to moderate government, avoiding extremes from one side to the other, keeping on the middle of the road and staying out of gutters." He indicated that he thinks this record is "good" and that there ought to be enthusiasm for "perpetuating that kind of effort through the medium of elections."

The President went on to say that analysis of recent elections showed that, even in Maine, his party would have won if registered Republicans had taken the trouble to vote. "They didn't," he declared.

The most serious phase of his remarks however was in what he foresees in the possible loss of "moderate" government and of possible loss of our free enterprise system unless Republicans intend to help with their time, their effort, their brains and their money."

In response, and in support of the President's words, Republican National Chairman Meade Alcorn called for a GOP campaign that will dramatize the "frightening alternative" to a Republican victory. This he termed to be "an 86th Congress dominated by left-winged on the Northern and Western Democratic tickets" who would "spend the next two years endangering the country by pressing their well-financed drives for Reuther socialism and ADA appeasement in our foreign policy."

Perhaps these fears are realistic and well-grounded. The last Congress which was Democratic controlled, would have driven our nation even much further into our already tremendous debt, if Eisenhower efforts had not, in some measure, stopped the drive headed by Democratic congressmen to pile more and more on this indebtedness which already is becoming a burden through interest alone, as well as creating increasing inflation.

Growing Up Once Was Simple

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP)—Growing up used to be pretty simple in the old days.

One wonders how they do it today. It is getting more and more complicated.

Then civics was more important than psychology.

Then work was the best group therapy.

Then a job was what had to get done, and you couldn't call a conference about it.

Then the biggest wish of most people who were long black stockings was to get out of them—not to dance with them.

Then an office efficiency expert was a character in a Saturday Evening Post story. He wouldn't really fit in your own home town.

Then a man sweated and a girl got all dewed. The more sophisticated ladies admitted they perspired.

Then the more knowing fellows criticized the way a blacksmith shod a horse. They could all do it better if they wanted to.

Then the undertaker always came to the first barber for a shave, and everybody was sure the second barber shaved the corpses. He was a man of close-mouthed mystery and had a romance about him.

Then the guy with the most gossip was the guy who went around the neighborhood cutting grass, pushing a muscle-propelled lawnmower. Only the kids still leered about the iceman.

Then a man would pay $7.50 for a fancy pair of shoes. He would let the fellow who pushed the lawnmower break them in.

Then when he put them on himself, the first thing he would do would be to get a nickel shine.

Then a guy would dress up Saturday night, even if he did no more than whistle at the girls in his best clothes.

Then the daredevils courted on the front porch swing. A city street light always glared nearby.

Then everybody took patent medicines. The doses didn't cure anybody, but the hidden alcohol tranquilized the more respectable patients.

Then even in the city the frustrated farmer kept pigs and chickens in his back yard. The well-to-do had a pony. The hypochondriacs had their own cow.

Then a nickel would buy you a mouthful of cigar, and another nickel a schooner of beer and a bite at the free lunch bar. The actors wore gloves, pulled them off daintily a finger at a time, then assailed the free lunch with the restraint of a famished wolf consuming a distant relative.

Then, in the old days, growing up was very simple. Time went by, and all of a sudden all these things were no longer true, and you had become a man.

What you had been familiar with as a boy no longer was as an adult. All at once it was different.

Perhaps growing up is just as simple for those in that process today. Yet I am sure that the realization of change will come to them, as it does to all, with the impact of a body blow.

And nostalgia will haunt the highways of their bones to warm remembrance.

Inflation Is a Disease

By George Sokolsky

T. Coleman Andrews used to collect the income tax and got disgusted doing it; he thereupon resigned and has devoted himself to proving that it is a bad tax.

That he is correct in his premise is obvious from the harm that the tax has done to the country, particularly in wiping out the economic independence of the white collar elements, in reducing the middle class to a proletariat, and in opening the doors to a money racketeering which is infinitely worse than bootlegging, although it is hard to make a distinction in degree between one crime and another.

The tax evader is a thief even if he saves his conscience by calling himself a tax avoider.

Money racketeering is not done by gangsters or little people. It is those who have money in large amounts and who get it out of this country to another where it can be converted into property other than currency without paying taxes.

The demoralization of a people starts with uniform lying. There is a constant contest between the government and its citizens as to how to handle this particular tax, the people using the word, avoidance; the government referring to it as evasion, and trying to put unpalatable offenders, such as Gov. Orval Faubus in jail for alleged infractions.

What T. Coleman Andrews is trying to tell Americans is that the federal government since 1939 has taken the American people for nearly 28 times more income tax and for 10 times more social security tax and so on.

"The cost of living has been more than doubled and is still going up, and the value of the dollar has been reduced to well below 50 cents and is still going down!"

Now this is not just hearsay. This is a statement by a trained accountant who had actually been the collector of internal revenue and who knows what it is about. He has issued a circular to say that inflation is here now and that the peril is upon us. Andrews gives several examples. I shall quote two from him:

"For example, it took $4,806 to provide the same amount of buying power after taxes ($1,975) as $2,000 provided in 1939. Why? Because the income tax on the increase of $2,806 was $755 and $2,051 was required to make up for the toll taken by inflation."

"Thus, if, in 1957, you received $4,000 salary from a job that paid $2,000 in 1939, your 1957 salary was $806 short of what you needed in order to have as much buying power as the 1939 holder had."

"Or, to take a case where the salary paid in 1939 for the job you held in 1957, or one similar to it, let's suppose that the 1939 salary was $2,500. That's halfway between $2,000 and $3,000. A conservative approximation of the 1957 equivalent of a 1939 income of $2,500 can be obtained by adding the 1957 equivalent of a 1939 salary of $2,000 to the 1957 equivalent of a 1939 salary of $3,000 and dividing the total by two. That would be $4,806 plus $7,370, making a total of $12,176, which, divided by two would give $6,088."

"Now, if your salary from this job in 1957 was $5,000, it was $1,088 short of what it needed to be in order to have the same buying power that $2,500 had in 1939."

So what the government does to issue more bonds which is money and thus the currency is inflated as surely as when the old kings clipped silver off the edge of coins.

Inflation is a deadly disease; it is one of the principal causes of the present stock market rise, the speculators hedging against inflation which cannot be done except by purchasing productive land, art objects and diamonds.

If it is true the Russians have found a diamond field of merit, then this gem is not a hedge against inflation because its great value is due to its comparative scarcity which is the result of monopolistic practices by an international cartel that controls prices.

Should any country find a top notch diamond field and decide to dump the commodity on the open market, prices would go tumbling.

The peril of inflation is so great that a government should take steps against it, but they are already interfering with spending. And what politician wants to be unpopular?

Diet and Health Different Things Can Cause Halitosis

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M. D.

EVERYONE is conscious of his breath these days, thanks to the advertising campaigns of various companies. And a person with halitosis, or bad breath, is apt to find himself somewhat of a social outcast.

But even if you do have halitosis, don't worry, my friends. Because, as these advertisements say, there really is a lot that can be done about it.

It's a Symptom

Generally, we consider halitosis as a symptom, not as a disease. And most frequently it is a symptom of faulty oral hygiene, or poor teeth.

If you don't brush your teeth and use dental floss after each meal—let's face it, how many of us do?—food particles are likely to stagnate between the teeth and the gum margins.

As these food particles decompose, they produce a very unpleasant odor. As a matter of fact, meat fibers can become foul within a matter of hours.

Similar Odor

Improperly cared-for teeth can produce a similar odor. Naturally, any cavities should be filled and tar removed in periodic visits to your dentist.

Pyorrhea is also a common cause of halitosis.

There can be many other causes, too. Disorders of the sinus, the tonsils and the nose are factors in some cases. Any accumulation of infected material in these areas might result in bad breath.

(© 1958, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

Other Causes

Chronic disturbances of the liver, stomach, intestines and even disorders of the lungs can bring on halitosis. And, of course, let's not forget excessive smoking.

So much for the causes. Now let's consider the cure.

In a great many cases, good oral hygiene will eliminate all of the offensive odor. As has been said so many times: "Good breath begins with good teeth."

Care of Teeth

Brush your teeth thoroughly after each meal. That means brushing them AFTER breakfast, not before. If you just can't possibly brush them after the meal, at least rinse your mouth with water several times.

Chewing an apple will help, too. It has sort of an abrasive action somewhat like brushing your teeth.

An ordinary antiseptic mouthwash probably will help eliminate, or at least reduce, objectionable breath for about two hours.

If these measures fail to help you, better see your dentist or your physician.

QUESTION AND ANSWER R.J. What causes my mouth to fill up with saliva?

A. A great increase of saliva occurs occasionally in nervous diseases, in acute infections, infections of the mouth and especially from the use of certain drugs.

FAYETTE COUNTY -- VOTERS

The political campaign for 1958 is fast coming to a close, and I wish therefore, in the closing hours to state a few facts which I have mentioned many times in the past few months.

First: I wish to express my thanks for the wonderful reception that was given me in my Door-to-Door Campaign, in which I personally tried to visit every residence in Fayette County.

Second: I would like to state that we live in a democracy where we have our many freedoms and you and I are entitled to our own views on the many issues that arise in our daily living. The reason I mention this is that on certain issues in our county there arises a certain bitterness, because of differences of opinion. There are approximately 25,000 residents in Fayette County, so rather than jump to hasty conclusions, let us all be neighbors and respect the rights of others.

Third: I have been asked in a few instances why my campaign material has not shown that I am a Democrat. In our two-party system a candidate must file his petition with the Board of Elections, stating he is either a Democrat or Republican, in order for his name to appear on the ballot. Because the ballot will show the party affiliation of each candidate I contend that when I am elected I must represent ALL of the people of Fayette County - BOTH Democrats and Republicans - therefore I conducted my campaign accordingly. I might add that in a recent speech given by my opponent he stated that he was a PARTISAN REPUBLICAN, and I must say here and now that I am NOT a partisan Democrat. Furthermore, as I stated above, when you elect me to the Ohio General Assembly of Ohio I am going to represent ALL of the people in Fayette County and the State of Ohio.

Fourth: I am your candidate with a free hand and an open mind. Let me clarify this just a little. BOTH of my campaigns have been conducted ENTIRELY through my own finances and through my own efforts. I have accepted NO CONTRIBUTIONS, financially or otherwise, for either the Primary or the General elections, nor have I promised any individual or group of individuals any favor. It is my opinion that any candidate seeking office should be able to conduct his own campaign without financial aid or gifts, for if they are accepted there are nearly always strings attached. If financial help is needed, the candidate should seek the assistance from the party and not from any individual or group. I REPEAT - MY CAMPAIGNS FOR BOTH THE PRIMARY AND GENERAL ELECTIONS WERE FINANCED ENTIRELY BY MYSELF.

Fifth: of course, I am greatly interested in becoming your Representative to the 103rd General Assembly. Therefore, I am asking the support of both parties. I assure you, however you vote, we will still be the best of friends. Yours for better Legislation.

VIRTUS J. KRUSE

Time To Meet Apathy "Head-on"

To those who see and listen to some of the sounder things presented through TV and radio, it must have been evident that some recent remarks by President Eisenhower should have more than passing attention.

When he was asked for comment on the frequent high-powered claims being made by Democratic leaders and other people who prefer to listen to criticism of Republicans in government rather than any other type of program, the President responded with fervor.

He declared he had heard reports of Republican apathy, and to him they were "incomprehensible." He described his administration as dedicated to moderate government, avoiding extremes from one side to the other, keeping on the middle of the road and staying out of gutters. He indicated that he thinks this record is "good" and that there ought to be enthusiasm for "perpetuating that kind of effort through the medium of elections."

The President went on to say that analysis of recent elections showed that, even in Maine, his party would have won if registered Republicans had taken the trouble to vote. "They didn't," he declared.

The most serious phase of his remarks however was in what he foresees in the possible loss of "moderate" government and of possible loss of our free enterprise system unless Republicans intend to help with their time, their effort, their brains and their money.

In response, and in support of the President's words, Republican National Chairman Meade Alcorn called for a GOP campaign that will dramatize the "frightening alternative" to a Republican victory. This he termed to be "an 86th Congress dominated by left-wingers on the Northern and Western Democratic tickets" who would "spend the next two years endangering the country by pressing their well-financed drives for Reuther socialism and ADA appeasement in our foreign policy."

Perhaps these fears are realistic and well-grounded. The last Congress which was Democratic controlled, would have driven our nation even much further into our already tremendous debt, if Eisenhower efforts had not, in some measure, stopped the drive headed by Democratic congressmen to pile more and more on this indebtedness which already is becoming a burden through interest alone, as well as creating increasing inflation.

Growing Up Once Was Simple

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP)—Growing up used to be pretty simple in the old days.

One wonders how they do it today. It is getting more and more complicated.

Then civics was more important than psychology.

Then work was the best group therapy.

Then a job was what had to get done, and you couldn't call a conference about it.

Then the biggest wish of most people who were long black stockings was to get out of them—not to dance with them.

Then an office efficiency expert was a character in a Saturday Evening Post story. He wouldn't really fit in your own home town.

Then a man sweated and a girl got all dewed. The more sophisticated ladies admitted they perspired.

Then the more knowing fellows criticized the way a blacksmith shoe a horse. They could all do it better if they wanted to.

Then the undertaker always came to the first barber for a shave, and everybody was sure the second barber shaved the corpses. He was a man of close-mouthed mystery and had a romance about him.

Then the guy with the most gossip was the guy who went around the neighborhood cutting grass, pushing a muscle-pumped lawn-mower. Only the kids still leered about the ice man.

Then a man would pay $7.50 for a fancy pair of shoes. He would let the fellow who pushed the lawnmower break them in. Then when he put them on himself, the first thing he would do would be to get a nickel shine.

Then a guy would dress up Saturday night, even if he did no more than whistle at the girls in his best clothes.

Then the daredevils courted on the front porch swing. A city street light always glared nearby.

Then everybody took patent medicines. The doses didn't cure anybody, but the hidden alcohol tranquilized the more respectable patients.

Then even in the city the frustrated farmer kept pigs and chickens in his back yard. The well-to-do had a pony. The hypocondriacs had their own cow.

Then a nickel would buy you a mouthful of cigar, and another nickel a schooner of beer and a bite at the free lunch bar. The actors wore gloves, pulled them off daintily a finger at a time, then assailed the free lunch with the restraint of a famished wolf consuming a distant relative.

Then, in the old days, growing up was very simple. Time went by, and all of a sudden all these things were no longer true, and you had become a man.

What you had been familiar with as a boy you no longer saw as an adult. All at once it was different.

Perhaps growing up is just as simple for those in that process today. Yet I am sure that the realization of change will come to them, as it does to all, with the impact of a body blow.

And nostalgia will haunt the highways of their bones to warm remembrance.

Inflation Is a Disease

By George Sokolsky

T. Coleman Andrews used to collect the income tax and got disgusted doing it; he thereupon resigned and has devoted himself to proving that it is a bad tax.

That he is correct in his premise is obvious from the harm that the tax has done to the country, particularly in wiping out the economic independence of the white collar elements, in reducing the middle class to a proletariat, and in opening the doors to a money racketeering which is infinitely worse than bootlegging, although it is hard to make a distinction in degree between one crime and another.

The tax evader is a thief even if he saves his conscience by calling himself a tax avoider.

Money racketeering is not done by gangsters or little people. It is those who have money in large amounts and who get it out of this country to another where it can be converted into property other than currency without paying taxes.

The demoralization of a people starts with uniform living. There is a constant contest between the government and its citizens as to how to handle this particular tax, the people using the word, avoidance; the government referring to it as evasion, and trying to put unpalatable offenders, such as Gov. Orval Faubus in jail for alleged infractions.

What T. Coleman Andrews is trying to tell Americans is that the federal government since 1939 has taken the American people for nearly 28 times more income tax and for 10 times more social security tax and:

"The cost of living has been more than doubled and is still going up. . . and the value of the dollar has been reduced to well below 50 cents and is still going down!"

Now this is not just hearsay. This is a statement by a trained accountant who had actually been the collector of internal revenue and who knows what it is about. He has issued a circular to say that inflation is here now and that the peril is upon us. Andrews gives several examples. I shall quote two from him:

"For example, it took $4,806 to provide the same amount of buying power after taxes ($1,975) as $2,000 provided in 1939. Why? Because the income tax on the increase of $2,806 was $755 and $2,051 was required to make up for the toll taken by inflation.

"Thus, if, in 1957, you received $4,000 salary from a job that paid $2,000 in 1939, your 1957 salary was $806 short of what you needed in order to have as much buying power as the 1939 holder had.

"Or, to take a case where the salary paid in 1939 for the job you held in 1957, or one similar to it . . . let's suppose that the 1939 salary was $2,500. That's halfway between $2,000 and $3,000. A conservative approximation of the 1957 equivalent of a 1939 income of $2,500 can be obtained by adding the 1957 equivalent of a 1939 salary of $2,000 to the 1957 equivalent of a 1939 salary of $3,000 and dividing the total by two. That would be $4,806 plus $7,370, making a total of $12,176, which, divided by two would give $6,088.

"Now, if your salary from this job in 1957 was $5,000, it was $1,088 short of what it needed to be in order to have the same buying power that $2,500 had in 1939."

"Now, if your salary from this job in 1957 was $5,000, it was $1,088 short of what it needed to be in order to have the same buying power that $2,500 had in 1939."

So what the government does is to issue more bonds which is money and thus the currency is inflated as surely as when the old kings clipped silver off the edge of coins.

Inflation is a deadly disease; it is one of the principal causes of the present stock market rise, the speculators hedging against inflation which cannot be done except by purchasing productive land, art objects and diamonds.

If it is true the Russians have found a diamond field of merit, then this gem is not a hedge against inflation because its great value is due to its comparative scarcity which is the result of monopolistic practices by an international cartel that controls prices.

Should any country find a top notch diamond field and decide to dump the commodity on the open market, prices would go tumbling.

The peril of inflation is so great that a government should take steps against it, but they are all interfere with spending. And what politician wants to be unpopular?

Ohio Newspaper Women Open Annual Convention
CANTON, Ohio (AP)—The 56th annual convention of Ohio newspaper women opened today with 250 members expected to attend the three-day meeting. Host newspapers for the convention are the Canton Repository, the Alliance Review and the Minerva Leader.

Diet and Health Different Things Can Cause Halitosis

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M. D.

EVERYONE is conscious of his breath these days, thanks to the advertising campaigns of various companies. And a person with halitosis, or bad breath, is apt to find himself somewhat of a social outcast.

But even if you do have halitosis, don't worry, my friends. Because, as these advertisements say, there really is a lot that can be done about it.

It's a Symptom

Generally, we consider halitosis as a symptom, not as a disease. And most frequently it is a symptom of faulty oral hygiene, or poor teeth.

If you don't brush your teeth and use dental floss after each meal—let's face it, how many of us do?—food particles are likely to stagnate between the teeth and the gum margins.

As these food particles decompose, they produce a very unpleasant odor. As a matter of fact, meat fibers can become foul within a matter of hours.

Similar Odor

Improperly cared-for teeth can produce a similar odor. Naturally, any cavities should be filled and tart removed in periodic visits to your dentist.

Furor is also a common cause of halitosis.

There can be many other causes, too. Disorders of the sinus, the tonsils and the nose are factors in some cases. Any accumulation of infected material in these areas might result in bad breath.

Other Causes

Chronic disturbances of the liver, stomach, intestines and even disorders of the lungs can bring on halitosis. And, of course, let's not forget excessive smoking.

So much for the causes. Now let's consider the cure.

In a great many cases, good oral hygiene will eliminate all of the offensive odor. As has been said so many times: "Good breath begins with good teeth."

Care of Teeth

Brush your teeth thoroughly after each meal. That means brushing them AFTER breakfast, not before. If you just can't possibly brush them after the nighttime meal, at least rinse your mouth with water several times.

Chewing an apple will help, too. It has sort of an abrasive action somewhat like brushing your teeth.

An ordinary antiseptic mouthwash probably will help eliminate, or at least reduce, objectionable breath for about two hours.

If these measures fail to help you, better see your dentist or your physician.

QUESTION AND ANSWER

R.J. What causes my mouth to fill up with saliva?

A. A great increase of saliva occurs occasionally in nervous diseases, in acute infections, infections of the mouth and especially from the use of certain drugs.

Because the ballot will show the party affiliation of each candidate I contend that when I am elected I must represent ALL of the people of Fayette County - BOTH Democrats and Republicans - therefore I conducted my campaign accordingly. I might add that in a recent speech given by my opponent he stated that he was a PARTISAN REPUBLICAN, and I must say here and now that I am NOT a partisan Democrat. Furthermore, as I stated above, when you elect me to the Ohio General Assembly of Ohio I am going to represent ALL of the people in Fayette County and the State of Ohio.

Fourth: I am your candidate with a free hand and an open mind. Let me clarify this just a little. BOTH of my campaigns have been conducted ENTIRELY through my own finances and through my own efforts. I have accepted NO CONTRIBUTIONS, financially or otherwise, for either the Primary or the General elections, nor have I promised any individual or group of individuals any favor. It is my opinion that any candidate seeking office should be able to conduct his own campaign without financial aid or gifts, for if they are accepted there are nearly always strings attached. If financial help is needed, the candidate should seek the assistance from the party and not from any individual or group. I REPEAT - MY CAMPAIGNS FOR BOTH THE PRIMARY AND GENERAL ELECTIONS WERE FINANCED ENTIRELY BY MYSELF.

Fifth: of course, I am greatly interested in becoming your Representative to the 103rd General Assembly. Therefore, I am asking the support of both parties. I assure you, however you vote, we will still be the best of friends. Yours for better Legislation.

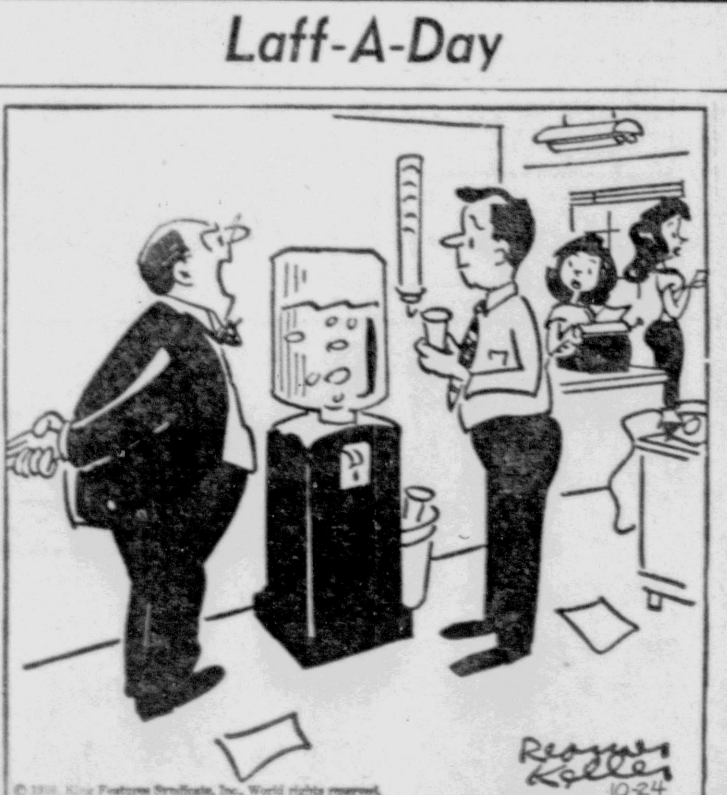

VIRTUS J. KRUSE

CANDIDATE NOV. 4th
OHIO GENERAL ASSEMBLY

(Pol. Adv.)

People . . . Places . . . and Things

Round about Fayette County

By B. E. KELLEY

I was amazed when I recently checked the names of doctors with whom I was personally acquainted to find the list numbered about 50.

I had come in contact with these professional men while engaged in newspaper work, and found them all very agreeable and always ready to cooperate in every way they could.

As a matter of fact I assisted more than one of them in emergency cases. There were situations like holding the hands of a struggling injured patient while a physician administered ether. The man, who had one leg almost severed by gunshot died during the ordeal.

That was just one of many experiences with doctors before the days of hospitals here — and even afterward.

Here is the list of doctors, most of them medics, others dentists and veterinarians, who have died:

Drs. G. W. Hodson, Geo. W. Blakeley, L. L. Brock, J. W. Worley, L. M. McFadden, T. W. McFadden, S. E. Boggs, E. M. Boggs, C. A. Teeters, James F. Grove; everyone welcome.

Tuesday:
8 p. m.—Charge-wide "Tuesday Meeting" for study of scriptural holiness everyone welcome.
Thursday:
10:30 a. m.—WSCS charge-wide Parish Day at New Martinsburg.
7:30 p. m.—Prayer meeting and Bible Study.

Wilson, Geo. W. Holdren, W. D. Magg, F. E. Hyer, A. A. Hyer, W. E. Ireland, Roy E. Brown, S. A. Ireland, Evan Brock, H. L. Stitt, E. F. Todhunter, C. C. Hazard, J. F. Dennis, A. M. Bush, C. E. Page, C. W. Sadders, Harry Jenkins, David H. Rowe, L. P. Howell, A. H. Kaler, W. H. Wilson, N. M. Reiff, A. S. Stemler, Grant Marchant, S. A. Hughey, R. M. Hughey, B. T. Keller, E. M. Meade, W. E. Robinson, O. D. Maddux, W. H. Gribble, E. W. Bolton, H. L. Little, V. P. Smith, E. C. Hamilton, Alvin O. Ervin, P. E. Decatur, J. B. May and Charles Davis.

Most of these doctors lived in Washington C. H. some in other towns in Fayette County, and still others in New Holland and Sedalia.

I have given their names and initials largely from memory, but believe all are correct.

Unless there is an abnormal amount of rain, forests in the hill areas will continue to be of exceptional beauty over the weekend although there has been a heavy leaf fall this week and many of the most gorgeously colored trees will be almost stripped of their beautiful garb.

Last Sunday saw what is believed to have been a record number of lovers of the beautiful who thronged the roads in nearly all hill areas to drink in the wonderful colors which were at their peak.

During the past week or 10 days there has been abundant color right here in this community. This has been enjoyed by many people who have not been able to drive into the hills to see the beauties there.

TIME FOR HONKERS
Anytime now, as cold weather closes down on the lake areas in northern Canada, we may expect to hear the honking of wild geese as they fly southward in their annual migration trip to warmer climes.

As usual they will be flying in a V shape with the old gander leading the flock, and his honks will be answered from time to time by others in the flock so that the leader will know all are following and that all is well.

Wild ducks also will be on the move at the same time, but they make no noise in flight and are not observed as often as the geese.

When the cold weather is following them closely, the big geese pass over at all hours in the day and night, always honking as they fly.

PREDICTION MADE
Twenty years ago there was much interest in the fact that small quantities of oil had been found in Greene County at depths of 1,300 to 1,800 feet.

In reporting the fact the Record-Herald concluded with this prophetic paragraph:

"Inasmuch as extensive fossil beds have been encountered up to nearly 2,000 feet below the surface in Fayette County, there is reason to believe the oil produced by these vast beds of marine life might be stored under Fayette County to be tapped in the years to come."

20 YEARS AGO
The State Conservation Department was building farm dams on North Fork of Paint and Compton creeks, and the Rock Bridge dam on the Creek Rd. as WPA projects.

Geodetic towers used in a federal survey were being moved west as the survey progressed.

A new water system in operation in Jeffersonville, with 30 fire hydrants, a 70,000 gallon tower 90 feet in height, and large number of homes serviced.

Frank H. Blessing died after a long illness.

The Japs occupied Canton and Hankow, China, with little armed resistance.

Razing of the Sunnyside School building to make room for a one-story structure was launched.

The long viaduct at Fosters, on the CCC Highway west was formally opened, and delegation from here attended the event.

Ed Lynch and Guy Huffman were Fayette County corn husking champions, Ed husked 24 bushel 3 1/2 pounds from the stalk and Guy 19 bushels and 33 pounds from shock in 80 minutes. Both qualified for the state husking contest.

Mrs. Lou A. Green died in Columbus.
While working in basement of old Cherry Flats, Market St., C. W. Voss found three sticks of dynamite which apparently had been placed there years before. There was no fuse or detonating cap with the dynamite.

much interest in the fact that small quantities of oil had been found in Greene County at depths of 1,300 to 1,800 feet.

In reporting the fact the Record-Herald concluded with this prophetic paragraph:

"Inasmuch as extensive fossil beds have been encountered up to nearly 2,000 feet below the surface in Fayette County, there is reason to believe the oil produced by these vast beds of marine life might be stored under Fayette County to be tapped in the years to come."

Time To Meet Apathy "Head-on"

To those who see and listen to some of the sounder things presented through TV and radio, it must have been evident that some recent remarks by President Eisenhower should have more than passing attention.

When he was asked for comment on the frequent high-powered claims being made by Democratic leaders and other people who prefer to listen to criticism of Republicans in government rather than any other type of program, the President responded with fervor.

He declared he had heard reports of Republican apathy, and to him they were "incomprehensible." He described his administration "as dedicated to moderate government, avoiding extremes from one side to the other, keeping on the middle of the road and staying out of gutters." He indicated that he thinks this record is "good" and that there ought to be enthusiasm for "perpetuating that kind of effort through the medium of elections."

The President went on to say that analysis of recent elections showed that, even in Maine, his party would have won if registered Republicans had taken the trouble to vote. "They didn't," he declared.

The most serious phase of his remarks however was in what he foresees in the possible loss of "moderate" government and of possible loss of our free enterprise system unless Republicans intend to help with their time, their effort, their brains and their money."

In response, and in support of the President's words, Republican National Chairman Meade Alcorn called for a GOP campaign that will dramatize the "frightening alternative" to a Republican victory. This he termed to be "an 86th Congress dominated by left-wingers on the Northern and Western Democratic tickets" who would "spend the next two years endangering the country by pressing their well-financed drives for Reuther socialism and ADA appeasement in our foreign policy."

Perhaps these fears are realistic and well-grounded. The last Congress which was Democratic controlled, would have driven our nation even much further into our already tremendous debt, if Eisenhower efforts had not, in some measure, stopped the drive headed by Democratic congressmen to pile more and more on this indebtedness which already is becoming a burden through interest alone, as well as creating increasing inflation.

Growing Up Once Was Simple

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP)—Growing up used to be pretty simple in the old days.

One wonders how they did it today. It is getting more and more complicated.

Then civics was more important than psychology.

Then work was the best group therapy.

Then a job was what had to get done, and you couldn't call a conference about it.

Then the biggest wish of most people who wore long black stockings was to get out of them—not to dance with them.

Then an office efficiency expert was a character in a Saturday Evening Post story. He wouldn't really fit in your own home town.

Then a man sweated and a girl got all dewed. The more sophisticated ladies admitted they perspired.

Then the more knowing fellows criticized the way a blacksmith shoed a horse. They could all do it better if they wanted to.

Then the undertaker always came to the first barber for a shave, and everybody was sure the second barber shaved the corpses. He was a man of close-mouthed mystery and had a romance about him.

Then the guy with the most gossip was the guy who went around the neighborhood cutting grass, pushing a muscle-propelled lawnmower. Only the kids still leered about the iceman.

Then a man would pay $7.50 for a fancy pair of shoes. He would let the fellow who pushed the lawnmower break them in. Then when he put them on himself, the first thing he would do would be to get a nickel shine.

Then a guy would dress up Saturday night, even if he did no more than whistle at the girls in his best clothes.

Then the daredevils courted on the front porch swing. A city street light always glared nearby.

Then everybody took patent medicines. The doses didn't cure anybody, but the hidden alcohol tranquilized the more respectable patients.

Then even in the city the frustrated farmer kept pigs and chickens in his back yard. The well-to-do had a pony. The hypochondriacs had their own cow.

Then a nickel would buy you a mouthful of cigar, and another nickel a schooner of beer and a bite at the free lunch bar. The actors wore gloves, pulled them off daintily a finger at a time, then assailed the free lunch with the restraint of a famished wolf consuming a distant relative.

Then, in the old days, growing up was very simple. Time went by, and all of a sudden all these things were no longer true, and you had become a man.

What you had been familiar with as a boy you no longer saw as an adult. All at once it was different.

Perhaps growing up is just as simple for those in that process today. Yet I am sure that the realization of change will come to them, as it does to all, with the impact of a body blow.

And nostalgia will haunt the highways of their bones to warm remembrance.

Inflation Is a Disease

By George Sokolsky

T. Coleman Andrews used to collect the income tax and got disgusted doing it; he thereupon resigned and has devoted himself to proving that it is a bad tax.

That he is correct in his premise is obvious from the harm that the tax has done to the country, particularly in wiping out the economic independence of the white collar elements, in reducing the middle class to a proletariat, and in opening the doors to a money racketeering which is infinitely worse than bootlegging, although it is hard to make a distinction in degree between one crime and another.

The tax evader is a thief even if he saves his conscience by calling himself a tax avoider.

Money racketeering is not done by gangsters or little people. It is those who have money in large amounts and who get it out of this country to another where it can be converted into property other than currency without paying taxes.

The demoralization of a people starts with uniform lying. There is a constant contest between the government and its citizens as to how to handle this particular tax, the people using the word, avoidance; the government referring to it as evasion, and trying to put unpalatable offenders, such as Gov. Orval Faubus in jail for alleged infractions.

What T. Coleman Andrews is trying to tell Americans is that the federal government since 1939 has taken the American people for nearly 28 times more income tax and for 10 times more social security tax and:

"The cost of living has been more than doubled and is still going up. . . and the value of the dollar has been reduced to well below 50 cents and is still going down!"

Now this is not just hearsay. This is a statement by a trained accountant who had actually been the collector of internal revenue and who knows what it is about. He has issued a circular to say that inflation is here now and that the peril is upon us. Andrews gives several examples. I shall quote two from him:

"For example, it took $4,806 to provide the same amount of buying power after taxes ($1,975) as $2,000 provided in 1939. Why? Because the income tax on the increase of $2,806 was $755 and $2,051 was required to make up for the toll taken by inflation.

"Thus, if, in 1957, you received $4,000 salary from a job that paid $2,000 in 1939, your 1957 salary was $806 short of what you needed in order to have as much buying power as the 1939 holder had.

"Or, to take a case where the salary paid in 1939 for the job you held in 1957, or one similar to it . . . let's suppose that the 1939 salary was $2,500. That's halfway between $2,000 and $3,000. A conservative approximation of the 1957 equivalent of a 1939 income of $2,500 can be obtained by adding the 1957 equivalent of a 1939 salary of $2,000 to the 1957 equivalent of a 1939 salary of $3,000 and dividing the total by two. That would be $4,806 plus $7,370, making a total of $12,176, which, divided by two would give $6,088.

"Now, if your salary from this job in 1957 was $5,000, it was $1,088 short of what it needed to be in order to have the same buying power that $2,500 had in 1939."

"Now, if your salary from this job in 1957 was $5,000, it was $1,088 short of what it needed to be in order to have the same buying power that $2,500 had in 1939."

"Now, if your salary from this job in 1957 was $5,000, it was $1,088 short of what it needed to be in order to have the same buying power that $2,500 had in 1939."

So what the government does is to issue more bonds which is money and thus the currency is inflated as surely as when the old kings clipped silver off the edge of coins.

Inflation is a deadly disease; it is one of the principal causes of the present stock market rise, the speculators hedging against inflation which cannot be done except by purchasing productive land, art objects and diamonds.

If it is true the Russians have found a diamond field of merit, then this gem is not a hedge against inflation because its great value is due to its comparative scarcity which is the result of monopolistic practices by an international cartel that controls prices.

Should any country find a top notch diamond field and decide to dump the commodity on the open market, prices would go tumbling.

The peril of inflation is so great that a government should take steps against it, but they are all they interfere with spending. And what politician wants to be unpopular?

Diet and Health Different Things Can Cause Halitosis

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M. D.

EVERYONE is conscious of his breath these days, thanks to the advertising campaigns of various companies. And a person with halitosis, or bad breath, is apt to find himself somewhat of a social outcast.

But even if you do have halitosis, don't worry, my friends. Because, as these advertisements say, there really is a lot that can be done about it.

It's a Symptom

Generally, we consider halitosis as a symptom, not as a disease. And most frequently it is a symptom of faulty oral hygiene, or poor teeth.

If you don't brush your teeth and use dental floss after each meal—let's face it, how many of us do?—food particles are likely to stagnate between the teeth and the gum margins.

As these food particles decompose, they produce a very unpleasant odor. As a matter of fact, meat fibers can become foul within a matter of hours.

Similar Odor

Improperly cared-for teeth can produce a similar odor. Naturally, any cavities should be filled and tar removed in periodic visits to your dentist.

Pyorrhea is also a common cause of halitosis.

There can be many other causes, too. Disorders of the sinus, the tonsils and the nose are factors in some cases. Any accumulation of infected material in these areas might result in bad breath.

(© 1958, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

Other Causes

Chronic disturbances of the liver, stomach, intestines and even disorders of the lungs can bring on halitosis. And, of course, let's not forget excessive smoking.

So much for the causes. Now let's consider the cure.

In a great many cases, good oral hygiene will eliminate all of the offensive odor. As has been said so many times: "Good breath begins with good teeth."

Care of Teeth

Brush your teeth thoroughly after each meal. That means brushing them AFTER breakfast, not before. If you just can't possibly brush them after the noon meal, at least rinse your mouth with water several times.

Chewing an apple will help, too. It has sort of an abrasive action somewhat like brushing your teeth.

An ordinary antiseptic mouthwash probably will help eliminate, or at least reduce, objectionable breath for about two hours.

If these measures fail to help you, better see your dentist or your physician.

QUESTION AND ANSWER

R.J. What causes my mouth to fill up with saliva?

A. A great increase of saliva occurs occasionally in nervous diseases, in acute infections, infections of the mouth and especially from the use of certain drugs.

FAYETTE COUNTY -- VOTERS

The political campaign for 1958 is fast coming to a close, and I wish therefore, in the closing hours to state a few facts which I have mentioned many times in the past few months.

First: I wish to express my thanks for the wonderful reception that was given me in my Door-to-Door Campaign, in which I personally tried to visit every residence in Fayette County.

Second: I would like to state that we live in a democracy where we have our many freedoms and you and I are entitled to our own views on the many issues that arise in our daily living. The reason I mention this is that on certain issues in our county there arises a certain bitterness, because of differences of opinion. There are approximately 25,000 residents in Fayette County, so rather than jump to hasty conclusions, let us all be neighbors and respect the rights of others.

Third: I have been asked in a few instances why my campaign material has not shown that I am a Democrat. In our two-party system a candidate must file his petition with the Board of Elections, stating he is either a Democrat or Republican, in order for his name to appear on the ballot. Because the ballot will show the party affiliation of each candidate I contend that when I am elected I must represent ALL of the people of Fayette County - BOTH Democrats and Republicans - therefore I conducted my campaign accordingly. I might add that in a recent speech given by my opponent he stated that he was a PARTISAN REPUBLICAN, and I must say here and now that I am NOT a partisan Democrat. Furthermore, as I stated above, when you elect me to the Ohio General Assembly of Ohio I am going to represent ALL of the people in Fayette County and the State of Ohio.

Fourth: I am your candidate with a free hand and an open mind. Let me clarify this just a little. BOTH of my campaigns have been conducted ENTIRELY through my own finances and through my own efforts. I have accepted NO CONTRIBUTIONS, financially or otherwise, for either the Primary or the General elections, nor have I promised any individual or group of individuals any favor. It is my opinion that any candidate seeking office should be able to conduct his own campaign without financial aid or gifts, for if they are accepted there are nearly always strings attached. If financial help is needed, the candidate should seek the assistance from the party and not from any individual or group. I REPEAT - MY CAMPAIGNS FOR BOTH THE PRIMARY AND GENERAL ELECTIONS WERE FINANCED ENTIRELY BY MYSELF.

Fifth: of course, I am greatly interested in becoming your Representative to the 103rd General Assembly. Therefore, I am asking the support of both parties. I assure you, however you vote, we will still be the best of friends. Yours for better Legislation.

VIRTUS J. KRUSE

People . . . Places . . . and Things

Round about Fayette County

By B. E. KELLEY

I was amazed when I recently checked the names of doctors with whom I was personally acquainted to find the list numbered about 50.

I had come in contact with these professional men while engaged in newspaper work, and found them all very agreeable and always ready to cooperate in every way they could.

As a matter of fact I assisted more than one of them in emergency cases. There were situations like holding the hands of a struggling injured patient while a physician administered ether. The man, who had one leg almost severed by gunshot died during the ordeal.

That was just one of many experiences with doctors before the days of hospitals here — and even afterward.

Here is the list of doctors, most of them medics, others dentists and veterinarians, who have died:

Drs. G. W. Hodson, Geo. W. Blakeley, L. L. Brock, J. W. Worley, L. M. McFadden, T. W. McFadden, S. E. Boggs, E. M. Boggs, C. A. Teeters, James F.

Wilson, Geo. W. Holdren, W. D. Magg, F. E. Hyer, A. A. Hyer, W. E. Ireland, Roy E. Brown, S. A. Ireland, Evan Brock, H. L. Stitt, E. F. Todhunter, C. C. Hazard, J. F. Dennis, A. M. Bush, C. E. Page, C. W. Soddors, Harry Jenkins, David H. Rowe, L. P. Howell, A. H. Kaler, W. H. Wilson, N. M. Reiff, A. S. Stiemler, Grant Marchant, S. A. Hughey, R. M. Hughey, B. T. Keilar, E. M. Meade, W. E. Robinson, O. D. Maddux, W. H. Gribble, E. W. Bolton, H. L. Little, V. P. Smith, E. C. Hamilton, Alvin O. Ervin, P. E. Decatur, J. B. May and Charles Davis.

Most of these doctors lived in Washington C. H. some in other towns in Fayette County, and still others in New Holland and Sedalia.

I have given their names and initials largely from memory, but believe all are correct.

 Unless there is an abnormal amount of rain, forests in the hill areas will continue to be of exceptional beauty over the weekend although there has been a heavy leaf fall this week and many of the most gorgeously colored trees will be almost stripped of their beautiful garb.

Last Sunday saw what is believed to have been a record number of lovers of the beautiful who thronged the roads in nearly all hill areas to drink in the wonderful colors which were at their peak.

During the past week or 10 days there has been abundant color right here in this community. This has been enjoyed by many people who have not been able to drive into the hills to see the beauties there.

TIME FOR HONKERS
 Anytime now, as cold weather closes down on the lake areas in northern Canada, we may expect to hear the honking of wild geese as they fly southward in their annual migration trip to warmer climes.

As usual they will be flying in a V shape with the old gander leading the flock, and his honks will be answered from time to time by others in the flock so that the leader will know all are following and that all is well.

Wild ducks also will be on the move at the same time, but they make no noise in flight and are not observed as often as the geese.

When the cold weather is following them closely, the big geese pass over at all hours in the day and night, always honking as they fly.

PREDICTION MADE
 Twenty years ago there was much interest in the fact that small quantities of oil had been found in Greene County at depths of 1,300 to 1,800 feet.

In reporting the fact the Record-Herald concluded with this prophetic paragraph:

"Inasmuch as extensive fossil beds have been encountered up to nearly 2,000 feet below the surface in Fayette County, there is reason to believe the oil produced by these vast beds of marine life might be stored under Fayette County to be tapped in the years to come."

20 YEARS AGO
 The State Conservation Department was building farm dams on North Fork of Paint and Compton creeks, and the Rock Bridge dam on the Creek Rd. as WPA projects.

Geodetic towers used in a federal survey were being moved west as the survey progressed.

A new water system in operation in Jeffersonville, with 30 fire hydrants, a 70,000 gallon tower 90 feet in height, and large number of homes serviced.

Frank H. Blessing died after a long illness.

The Japs occupied Canton and Hankow, China, with little armed resistance.

Razing of the Sunnyside School building to make room for a one-story structure was launched.

The long viaduct at Fosters, on the CCC Highway west was formally opened, and delegation from here attended the event.

Ed Lynch and Guy Huffman were Fayette County corn husking champions, Ed husked 24 bushel 3½ pounds from the stalk and Guy 19 bushels and 33 pounds from shock in 80 minutes. Both qualified for the state husking contest.

Mrs. Lou A. Green died in Columbus.

While working in basement of old Cherry Flats, Market St., C. W. Voss found three sticks of dynamite which apparently had been placed there years before. There was no fuse or detonating cap with the dynamite.

Band Has Unique Show For Game Here Tonight

The show the Washington C. H. High School Band will put on Friday night during the halftime of the Greenfield-Washington C. H. football game will be based on show business.

With its marching formations and tunes, the band to cover the highlights of entertainment from grand opera and good old days of the minstrel to the modern television.

Robert Neumann, the director, commented: "This should be the best show yet if it goes off without any hitches."

Before the game the combined Greenfield and Washington C. H. will play the national anthem, but before it leaves the field the WHS Band will form a G in honor of the visiting team and its followers and a big W in front of the Washington C. H. section of the stadium.

AFTER A fanfare at the end of the gridiron, the WHS Band will march in a shifting quick-step formation to midfield for "Another Opening, Another Show" and its salute show business, the world of grease paint and bright lights.

Outlines of a huge television screen will be formed by the band for its first tribute to the entertainment world. The "television" show will feature the band's head drum major, Randy Mann, and two twirling specialists, Paulette Pennington and Judy Lundberg, spinning their batons.

And, of course, there could not be a television show without the commercial; so the band will shift into the outline of a stomach for a demonstration of a remedy to give "fast, fast, fast relief."

With the lights out, the band will turn back time to give its version of an old fashioned minstrel as it sings, "Oh Mister Moon" and "Moonlight Bay."

But there will be a tinge of the modern with audience participa-

Jeff PTC Projects To Net about $200

JEFFERSONVILLE — The card party in Marshall Grange Hall and the sock hop for the young people in the high school gymnasium last Saturday night, both sponsored by the Jeffersonville Parent-Teacher Club, will net "about $200" for the club treasury, a spokesman for the PTC said today. The exact figure will not be known until "all of the little bills are paid," she added.

Proceeds from the card party and sock hop were estimated as about the same.

Tables were set up for euchre, canasta and bridge at the card party and there was both square show of the football season for the band here. Its last appearance will be at the game between the Lions and Circleville's Tigers here Nov. 7.

The Lions play at Franklin Heights next Friday night.

Ohio Farmer Says:
"d-CON STOPPED RATS FROM EATING ME OUT OF HOUSE AND HOME!"

Read What Lowell Geringer, Of Wauseon, Ohio, Has To Say About d-CON:

"Rats were a real problem with me. I had to get rid of them and so I turned to d-CON. I'd been using another rat-killer, but d-CON sure did the job. d-CON gets results...it really kills rats. Let me tell you...d-CON stopped rats from eating me out of house and home!"

It's a fact—in the great corn and wheat belts of America, where farmers really know how to get rid of rats, d-CON outdoes all other rat and mouse killers combined!

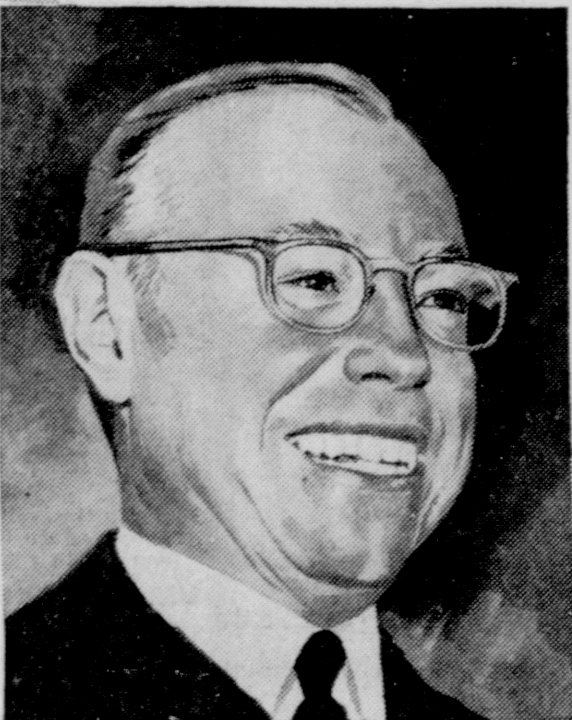

Farmers know that d-CON is the quick, sure, easy way to rid their property of destructive, disease-bearing rats. For rats hungrily eat d-CON's exclusive LX 3-2-1 formula, never suspect it's bait, never get bait-shy, devour it without guessing that every bite puts another nail in their coffin. d-CON actually makes rats commit suicide.

d-CON is THERMO-SEALED—always reaches you "factory fresh." Economical, too. One package of d-CON makes several bait stations.

Remember, d-CON, used as directed, is safe to use around small children, pets, poultry and livestock, yet is guaranteed to keep your property rat and mouse free forever!

The TAFTS Speak Out Against (SO-CALLED) 'Right-to-Work' Laws

The Late Senator Robert A. Taft

"I myself came to the conclusion that since there had been for such a long time so many union shops in the United States, since in many trades it was entirely customary and had worked satisfactorily, I at least was not willing to go to the extent of abolishing the possibility of a union shop contract. It seemed to me that (instead) we should meet the problem of dealing with the abuses which have appeared.

"... I think it would be a mistake to go to the extreme of absolutely outlawing a contract which provides for a union shop."

Excerpts from the remarks by Senator Robert A. Taft in opposing an amendment to the Taft-Hartley Act which would have provided for a national so-called "right-to-work" law. (Congressional Record, p. 4885-6, May 9, 1947.)

Charles P. Taft

former Mayor of Cincinnati

"I am interested in the freedom of the individual worker, too, but I see every reason why he should pay something for the representation he receives when the union lawfully designed by vote of the workers bargains for him. I see no reason for the 'free rider.'

"The intent of these ('right-to-work') acts is clearly anti-union, as anyone knows who has talked to the overwhelming majority of those who favor them."

Excerpts from remarks by Charles P. Taft before the American Baptist Convention, June 17, 1958. Mr. Taft is vice president of the National Council of Churches.

The Late President Wm. H. Taft

"Labor unions were organized out of the necessity of the situation. A single employee was helpless in dealing with an employer. If the employer refused to pay him the wage he thought fair, he was nevertheless unable to leave the employ and resist arbitrary and unfair treatment. Union was essential to give laborers opportunity to deal on equality with their employer."

Ex-President Taft, father of Robert and Charles, Taft, wrote the above when he was Chief Justice of the U. S. Supreme Court. (See American Steel Foundries Co. vs. Tri-City Trades Council, 1912 decisions.)

Band Has Unique Show For Game Here Tonight

The show the Washington C. H. High School Band will put on Friday night during the halftime of the Greenfield-Washington C. H. football game will be based on show business.

With its marching formations and tunes, the band to cover the highlights of entertainment from grand opera and good old days of the minstrel to the modern television.

Robert Neumann, the director, commented: "This should be the best show yet, if it goes off without any hitches."

Before the game the combined Greenfield and Washington C. H. will play the national anthem, but before it leaves the field the WHS Band will form a G in honor of the visiting team and its followers and a big W in front of the Washington C. H. section of the stadium.

AFTER A fanfare at the end of the gridiron, the WHS Band will march in a shifting quick-step formation to midfield for "Another Opening, Another Show" and its salute show business, the world of grease paint and bright lights.

Outlines of a huge television screen will be formed by the band for its first tribute to the entertainment world. The "television" show will feature the band's head drum major, Randy Mann, and two twirling specialists, Paulette Pennington and Judy Lundberg, spinning their batons.

And, of course, there could not be a television show without the commercial; so the band will shift into the outline of a stomach for a demonstration of a remedy to give "fast, fast, fast relief."

With the lights out, the band will turn back time to give its version of an old fashioned minstrel as it sings, "Oh Mister Moon" and "Moonlight Bay."

But there will be a tinge of the modern with audience participation in singing the last chorus with the band. "We were sailing along . . ."

FROM THE DAYS of the minstrel the band will go even further back to grand opera, one of the oldest forms of entertainment.

The band's salute to the opera will be the presentation of a humorous opera of its own, "Glow, Wash and Tom." For the love interest in the opera there will be Madame Butter Glow. The hero of the story is Sir George Wash and the villain Count Van Tom.

The show will come to an end with the playing of the WHS alma mater by the band while the audience sings.

This will be the next to the last

Jeff PTC Projects To Net about $200

JEFFERSONVILLE — The card party in Marshall Grange Hall and the sock hop for the young people in the high school gymnasium last Saturday night, both sponsored by the Jeffersonville Parent-Teacher Club, will net "about $200" for the club treasury, a spokesman for the PTC said today. The exact figure will not be known until "all of the little bills are paid," she added.

Proceeds from the card party and sock hop were estimated as about the same.

Tables were set up for euchre, canasta and bridge at the card party and there was both square and conventional ballroom dancing at the sock hop.

Prizes given at both the card party and sock hop were donated to the PTC by merchants of Washington C. H., Jeffersonville and Bookwalter. A member of the committee said the PTC wants to thank The Kroger Store, Gossard Jewelry Store, Bud's Men's Store, Pensyl's Camera Shop, Moore's Store, Patton's Book Store, Bray's News and Sport Center and Harmony Music Center in Washington C. H.; Hoppes Feed Service, Merritt's Barber Shop and Caplinger's Market in Jeffersonville and the Bookwalter Farm Bureau and Cleon Coe's Store for their help in making the two events a success.

show of the football season for the band here. Its last appearance will be at the game between the Lions and Circleville's Tigers here Nov. 7.

The Lions play at Franklin Heights next Friday night.

Critical Employment Period Seen for U. S.

CLEVELAND (AP) — Rep. Charles A. Vanik (D-Ohio) says America is facing a critical period of adjustment and employment in the post-recession period will require a "constantly changing classification and competency in the labor force."

In a speech to the Garfield Heights Educational Assn., Vanik, who is seeking re-election, urged an adult education program designed to keep a person on the job rather than to entertain them.

The TAFTS Speak Out Against

(SO-CALLED)

'Right-to-Work' Laws

The Late Senator Robert A. Taft

"I myself came to the conclusion that since there had been for such a long time so many union shops in the United States, since in many trades it was entirely customary and had worked satisfactorily, I at least was not willing to go to the extent of abolishing the possibility of a union shop contract. It seemed to me that (instead) we should meet the problem of dealing with the abuses which have appeared.

"... I think it would be a mistake to go to the extreme of absolutely outlawing a contract which provides for a union shop."

Excerpts from the remarks by Senator Robert A. Taft in opposing an amendment to the Taft-Hartley Act which would have provided for a national so-called "right-to-work" law. (Congressional Record, p. 4885-6, May 9, 1947.)

Charles P. Taft

former Mayor of Cincinnati

"I am interested in the freedom of the individual worker, too, but I see every reason why he should pay something for the representation he receives when the union lawfully designed by vote of the workers bargains for him. I see no reason for the 'free rider.'

"The intent of these ('right-to-work') acts is clearly anti-union, as anyone knows who has talked to the overwhelming majority of those who favor them."

Excerpts from remarks by Charles P. Taft before the American Baptist Convention, June 17, 1958. Mr. Taft is vice president of the National Council of Churches.

The Late President Wm. H. Taft

"Labor unions were organized out of the necessity of the situation. A single employee was helpless in dealing with an employer. If the employer refused to pay him the wage he thought fair, he was nevertheless unable to leave the employ and resist arbitrary and unfair treatment. Union was essential to give laborers opportunity to deal on equality with their employer."

Ex-President Taft, father of Robert and Charles, Taft, wrote the above when he was Chief Justice of the U. S. Supreme Court. (See American Steel Foundries Co. vs. Tri-City Trades Council, 1912 decisions.)

Some Football Hotshots May Get Surprised

Biggest Collegiate Contest Saturday Is Pittsburgh vs Army

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The handwriting is on the wall for those college football hot shots who think it may be an easy weekend.

Previously undefeated and 10th-ranked Clemson lost 26-6 to South Carolina Thursday in their annual State Fair Game. Clemson also lost the Atlantic Coast Conference lead to Wake Forest, which has a 2-0 conference record and meets North Carolina Saturday. Clemson is 3-1 in the ACC.

The big game Saturday is at Pittsburgh, where unbeaten and top-ranked Army meets Pitt in a game regionally televised in the East. Pitt is a seven-point underdog but faces an Army squad which is minus starting fullback Harry Walters and whose star halfback Pete Dawkins is badly limited by a severe charley horse.

The Lambert Trophy, which goes to the Eastern champion, hangs in the balance.

In the Big Ten, second-ranked Ohio State, undefeated in four games, meets unbeaten Wisconsin, while undefeated Northwestern (No. 8) plays ninth-ranked Iowa (3-0-1). A victory for Northwestern and a loss by Ohio State would give the Wildcats a commanding 3-0 conference record.

The Southwest has its key game when fourth-rated Texas travels to Rice. Rice is 2-0 in the conference, tied with idle Texas Christian (No. 16), while Texas is undefeated in five games and 1-0 in conference play.

Third-ranked Louisiana State (No. 3), with a possible Southeast Conference title game next week against sixth-ranked Mississippi meets ever-dangerous Florida in an SEC game, while the Rebels play winless Arkansas in a non-conference tilt.

Auburn (No. 5) goes after a new win streak against Maryland, a three-time shutout victim.

Two Big Eight games pit ninth-ranked Oklahoma against Kansas State; while 12th-rated Colorado is a four-touchdown choice over Nebraska.

The Midwest regional TV game has Purdue (No. 15) at Notre Dame (No. 11) in the Irish's homecoming day.

Seventeenth-ranked Georgia Tech, raring to go after tying Auburn last week, invades Dallas' Cotton Bowl to play Southern Methodist, while Navy (No. 18) travels to Philadelphia to meet Penn.

Top Ten Grid Teams Await Weekend Tests

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Here is the weekend schedule for the top 10 high school football teams in The Associated Press poll (standings in parentheses):
Massillon (1) at Warren (5);
Alliance (2) vs Canton McKinley;
Cleveland Cathedral Latin (3) vs Cleveland John Adams;
Marion Harding (4) vs Ashland; Newark (6) vs Coshocton; Youngstown (7) vs Salem; Springfield (8) vs Dayton Sivers; Elyria (9) vs Findlay; Canton Central Catholic (10) vs Canton Lincoln.

WCH Gridders Break Even at Wilmington

Two Washington C. H. football teams broke even in a double-header at Wilmington Thursday after school.

A team of eighth graders, taken from the regular Lion Cub squad, was edged 14 to 6. Carl Anders scored the only Washington C. H. touchdown in the game that went four 8-minute periods.

Glen Miltstead, volunteer coach of the Cubs, was forced to assign several of the boys to positions with which they were completely unfamiliar to replace the ninth graders on the Cub squad.

In the other game, which went for two 8-minute periods, the WCH seventh graders blanked a team of Wilmington seventh graders, 12 to 0.

On their opening offensive play of the game, Bill Marting raced 80 yards before he was pulled down 5 yards from pay dirt. He was sprung loose on a cutback on an end sweep by a key block by Dave Johns. He threaded his way through the Wilmington defense behind effective blocking, specially by Ron Jones and Bob Grim.

Jones went over for the TD on the next play.

Jones also scored the other WCH touchdown on a 40-yard sprint around end. Marting and Dick Echlu threw the key blocks.

Hillsboro Edges Wilmington For Third Victory of Season

Hillsboro's Indians won their third game of the season: Thursday night when they staved off a belated rush and edged Wilmington's Hurricane 26 to 24 at Hillsboro.

It was the fifth defeat in a row for the Hurricane, which apparently blew itself out winning its first two games by convincing score. And all five of those defeats were at the hands of Southcentral Ohio League foes.

Two of the Indian's four losses were to SCO League teams, Washington C. H. and Circleville. The victory over the Hurricane was the Indians' first of the season in the league. Two SCO games remain on their schedule, Greenfield and Franklin Heights.

The game was played Thursday night because the Hillsboro and Wilmington schools were closed for the annual district teachers meeting.

Two other SCO League games will be played tonight: Greenfield at Washington C. H. and Franklin Heights at Circleville.

Birdie Slated For Top Job With Braves

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Birdie Tebbetts, who resigned as Cincinnati manager when the Redlegs were in last place, has become the titular head of the rich Milwaukee Braves baseball kingdom and probably will assume the crown permanently in a few years.

Hired as executive vice president by Milwaukee earlier in the month, Tebbetts held forth Thursday in his first press conference.

In a prepared statement, he said he joined the Braves because the club offered the job "I have been preparing myself for during my 25 years as a player and a manager."

Tebbetts was put on the payroll as an aide to Braves' President Joseph C. Cairnes, who said a Florida construction project will demand more of his time over the next 10 years. Cairnes established Tebbetts' status when he said:

"Birdie will head up the organization in my absence. He'll be responsible for it. Any trades must have the approval of the president or the executive vice president in the absence of the president." He added that "maybe in a matter of years Birdie will be president of the ball club."

Tebbetts asserted he has adopted a strict policy of noninterference with the labors of Field Manager Fred Haney. Birdie said "I would refuse" if asked to take over the ball club "for two weeks in July if Haney got sick."

A temperature of 189 degrees in the shade has been recorded in Libya, North Africa.

The word "beaver" for hat was used as early as the 14th century.

World's Tiniest Tarpon Claimed by Angler

BROWNSVILLE, Tex. (AP)—Most fishermen brag about the big fish they catch.

But Hal Roche believes he caught the world's smallest tarpon. The fish was 4 1/4 inches long and weighed three ounces.

Local sportsmen said they could not remember a tarpon that small being caught on a line before. Most are measured in feet.

Roche said he was going to have the fish mounted.

Close Game Predicted By WHS Lion Coach

Off the field, Head WHS Coach Fred Domenico, is a quiet spoken coach who always predicts a close football game.

He believes the squad that shows the most poise on the field will cop Friday night's game between the WHS Lions and Greenfield Tigers.

Both teams will enter the game at Gardner Park at 8 p. m. Friday.

Top Manager Gives Credit To Old Boss

CHESTER, Pa. (AP)—In the midst of congratulations over his selection as The Associated Press' Manager of the Year, Danny Murtaugh remembered another Pittsburgh manager today.

"Bill Meyer helped me an awful lot," the sharp-featured, 41-year-old Pirates manager said at his home here. "Toward the end of my career, I got to thinking about wanting to be a manager. Billy would let me sit next to him on the bench. He gave me all sorts of advice, told me why he did things."

"Bill was a good baseball man," Murtaugh, former second baseman who never played for a major league team that finished higher than fourth place, was named Manager of the Year Thursday for his feat of leading the unheralded Pirates into second place in 1958.

The 84-70 finish, eight games behind the pennant-winning Milwaukee Braves, was the Pirates' best since 1944. They finished in a tie for last place in 1957. It was Murtaugh's first full season as manager. He succeeded Bobby Bragan Aug. 3, 1957.

The stocky, 5-foot-9 manager played for the late Meyer in 1948, when the Pirates finished fourth and Meyer was acclaimed Manager of the Year. It was the only time in seven full seasons with the Philadelphia Phillies and the Pirates that Danny played on a first-division club. He played briefly for the Boston Braves in 1946.

Medics To Ponder McCormack's Role

CLEVELAND (AP)—Doctors will determine next week whether tackle Mike McCormack will be able to return to action with the Cleveland Browns this season.

McCormack, a key man on the Browns' offensive line, suffered torn knee ligaments in last Sunday's game with the Pittsburgh Steelers.

Dr. Vic Ippolito, Browns' physician, said McCormack will remain in bed at Marymount Hospital over the weekend.

The extent of damage won't be known until the 6 foot 4, 247-pound tackle tests the leg early next week.

Some Football Hotshots May Get Surprised

Biggest Collegiate Contest Saturday Is Pittsburgh vs Army

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The handwriting is on the wall for those college football hot shots who think it may be an easy weekend.

Previously undefeated and 10th-ranked Clemson lost 26-6 to South Carolina Thursday in their annual State Fair Game. Clemson also lost the Atlantic Coast Conference lead to Wake Forest, which has a 2-0 conference record and meets North Carolina Saturday. Clemson is 3-1 in the ACC.

The big game Saturday is at Pittsburgh, where unbeaten and top-ranked Army meets Pitt in a game regionally televised in the East. Pitt is a seven-point underdog but faces an Army squad which is minus starting fullback Harry Walters and whose star halfback Pete Dawkins is badly limited by a severe charley horse.

The Lambert Trophy, which goes to the Eastern champion, hangs in the balance.

In the Big Ten, second-ranked Ohio State, undefeated in four games, meets once-beaten Wisconsin, while undefeated Northwestern (No. 8) play ninth-ranked Iowa (3-0-1). A victory for Northwestern and a loss by Ohio State would give the Wildcats a commanding 3-0 conference record.

The Southwest has its key game when fourth-ranked Texas travels to Rice. Rice is 2-0 in the conference, tied with idle Texas Christian (No. 16), while Texas is undefeated in five games and 1-0 in conference play.

Third-ranked Louisiana State (No. 3), with a possible Southeast Conference title game next week against sixth-ranked Mississippi meets ever-dangerous Florida in an SEC game, while the Rebels play winless Arkansas in a non-conference tilt.

Auburn (No. 5) goes after a new win streak against Maryland, a three-time shutout victim.

Two Big Eight games pit ninth-ranked Oklahoma against Kansas State; while 12th-rated Colorado is a four-touchdown choice over Nebraska.

The Midwest regional TV game has Purdue (No. 15) at Notre Dame (No. 11) in the Irish's homecoming day.

Seventeenth-ranked Georgia Tech, rating to go after tying Auburn last week, invades Dallas' Cotton Bowl to play Southern Methodist, while Navy (No. 18) travels to Philadelphia to meet Penn.

Top Ten Grid Teams Await Weekend Tests

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Here is the weekend schedule for the top 10 high school football teams in The Associated Press poll (standings in parentheses):

Massillon (1) at Warren (5); Alliance (2) vs Canton McKinley; Cleveland Cathedral Latin (3) vs Cleveland John Adams; Marion Harding (4) vs Ashland; Newark (6) vs Coshocton; Youngstown East (7) vs Salem; Springfield (8) vs Dayton Stivers; Elyria (9) vs Findlay; Canton Central Catholic (10) vs Canton Lincoln.

Hillsboro Edges Wilmington For Third Victory of Season

Hillsboro's Indians won their third game of the season Thursday night when they staved off a belated rush and edged Wilmington's Hurricane 26 to 24 at Hillsboro.

It was the fifth defeat in a row for the Hurricane, which apparently blew itself out winning its first two games by convincing score. And all five of those defeats were at the hands of Southcentral Ohio League foes.

Two of the Indian's four losses were to SCO League teams, Washington C. H. and Circleville. The victory over the Hurricane was the Indians' first of the season in the league. Two SCO games remain on their schedule, Greenfield and Franklin Heights.

The game was played Thursday night because the Hillsboro and Wilmington schools were closed for the annual district teachers meeting.

Two other SCO League games will be played tonight: Greenfield at Washington C. H. and Franklin Heights at Circleville.

Close Game Predicted By WHS Lion Coach

Off the field, Head WHS Coach Fred Domenico, is a quiet spoken coach who always predicts a close football game.

He believes the squad that shows the most poise on the field will cop Friday night's game between the WHS Lions and Greenfield Tigers.

New Holland Masons Given Recognition

NEW HOLLAND — Thirty three of 66 men who have been members of the Masonic Blue Lodge at New Holland for 25 or more years, were presented 25-year pins at a special meeting in the Temple Thursday night following the dinner.

This was the first pin presentation in many years; so some of them were given to Masons who had been members of the lodge for 30 or more years.

Ansel Kirkpatrick, who died suddenly Tuesday afternoon, was to have received one of the pins. Instead, a brief period of silence was observed in his memory.

The pins were presented to John Craig, worshipful master of the lodge to Raymond S. Ater (1931), Ralph Nessel (1944), Homer Timmons (1920), Dudley Roth (1917), Irvin Yeoman (1926), Bruce Head (1921), Harry K. MANY OF THE 33 others eligible to receive the pins who were not at the meeting now live in many parts of the country, but still retain their membership in the lodge.

Raymond Ashbaugh, district deputy grand master, came from his home in Yellow Springs for the recognition ceremonies.

James J. Harbage of Columbus, treasurer of the grand lodge and past grand master of the Masonic Lodge in Ohio, was the principal speaker of the evening.

Matter May Go Directly to Supreme Court

Judge Asks To Withdraw Crow Case Cross-Petitions

Common Pleas Judge John P. Case Thursday asked the permission of the Second District Court of Appeals to withdraw cross-petitions in mandamus actions brought against him by J. Harvey Crow, disbarred Urbana attorney, and two other persons in whose civil damage actions Crow has claimed to have acquired an interest.

Judge Case, who had asked that the appellate court restrain Crow from "unauthorized practice of law" and to punish the Urbanans for contempt of court, pointed out in his application that he has reason to believe that he will be called as a witness in contempt proceedings against Crow commenced in the Ohio Supreme Court.

Withdrawal of the local jurist's cross-petitions apparently would make it possible for the Unauthorized Practice Committee of the Ohio Bar Assn., which instituted the Supreme Court proceedings, to incorporate charges contained in Judge Case's cross-petitions in its action in the high court.

CROW has been given until Nov. 8 to show cause in the Supreme Court why he should not be cited for contempt.

The disbarred attorney earlier had asked the Court of Appeals to strike Judge Case's cross-petitions, arguing that the filing of them constituted practice of law by a judge on the bench.

The original mandamus actions were filed in an effort to compel the Common Pleas jurist to reinstate cases which the court had dismissed for lack of prosecution. The plaintiffs in these two cases were Beverly Clickner Walls and William Tumbleton, who had been Crow's clients.

Three minor accidents were investigated by officers Thursday night.

Hugh L. Zimmerman, 17, Milledgeville, was driving on the Milledgeville - Octa Rd. at 12:40 a. m. Friday when his car veered to the left side of the road then swerved back into the fence on the right side of the road, he told sheriff's deputies. His car had minor damage. The report said two fence posts and two rods of fence on the farm of Hoyt Bock were damaged.

When Willie C. Peoples, Cincinnati, backed his truck into the right lane of traffic on the 300 block of E. Court St. Thursday afternoon he hit the parking car of Odie Mozinga Brady, 48, Route 3, police said. His truck was slightly damaged.

William Cyrus Hunter, 48, Columbus, told officers he started to pass a car making a left turn when he hit another car driven by Kathleen Kelly, Mt. Sterling, at the intersection of Columbus Ave. and Blackstone St. at 6:52 p. m. Thursday. Damage was minor.

The fire in the partitions between restrooms in the main building was discovered by workmen who soon had the blaze under control, Chief Hall said. The damage was held to a minimum.

Chief Hall did not comment on how the match or cigarette was stuck in the wall.

Stockyards Fire Damage Is Small

A fire at the Union Stockyards, Rose Ave., at 6:43 p. m. Thursday, was probably caused by a cigarette or match stuck in the celotex wall, Fire Chief George Hall said Friday.

The fire in the partitions between restrooms in the main building was discovered by workmen who soon had the blaze under control, Chief Hall said. The damage was held to a minimum.

Chief Hall did not comment on how the match or cigarette was stuck in the wall.

New Holland Masons Given Recognition

NEW HOLLAND — Thirty three of 66 men who have been members of the Masonic Blue Lodge at New Holland for 25 or more years, were presented 25-year pins at a special meeting in the Temple Thursday night following the dinner.

This was the first pin presentation in many years; so some of them were given to Masons who had been members of the lodge for 30 or more years.

Ansel Kirkpatrick, who died suddenly Tuesday afternoon, was to have received one of the pins. Instead, a brief period of silence was observed in his memory.

The pins were presented to John Craig, worshipful master of the lodge to Raymond S. Ater (1931), Ralph Nessell (1914), Homer Timmons (1920), Dudley Roth (1917), Irvin Yeoman (1926), Bruce Head (1921), Harry K. Armstrong (1920), Charles Shasteen (1911), Harry Heath (1923), Carl Binns (1916), Dr. L. M. Tarbill (1931), D. T. Binns (1920), John T. Dick (1913), J. G. Owens (1923), R. L. Stewart (1928), Earl Shasteen (1919), Everett Shasteen (1919), Roscoe Shasteen (1919), Erceel J. Wright (1919), Elzie Radcliffe (1926), Homer Leaverton (1923), E. C. McQuay (1923), Hoyt B. Griffith (1930), Wayne Wood (1926), Mevin S. Day (1930).

MANY OF THE 33 others eligible to receive the pins who were not at the meeting now live in many parts of the country, but still retain their membership in the lodge.

Raymond Ashbaugh, district deputy master, came from his home in Yellow Springs for the recognition ceremonies.

James J. Harbage of Columbus, treasurer of the grand lodge and a past grand master of the Masonic Lodge in Ohio, was the principal speaker of the evening.

Entertainment on the lighter side was provided by the Achbar Grotto chorus from Columbus.

Charles Mustine, worshipful master, represented Fayette Lodge at the ceremonies.

Matter May Go Directly to Supreme Court

Judge Asks To Withdraw Crow Case Cross-Petitions

Common Pleas Judge John P. Case Thursday asked the permission of the Second District Court of Appeals to withdraw cross-petitions in mandamus actions brought against him by J. Harvey Crow, disbarred Urbana attorney, and two other persons in whose civil damage actions Crow has claimed to have acquired an interest.

Judge Case, who had asked that the appellate court restrain Crow from "unauthorized practice of law" and to punish the

3 Minor Accidents Reported Thursday

Three minor accidents were investigated by officers Thursday night.

Hugh L. Zimmerman, 17, Milledgeville, was driving on the Milledgeville - Octa Rd. at 12:40 a. m. Friday when his car veered to the left side of the road then swerved back into the fence on the right side of the road, he told sheriff's deputies. His car had minor damage. The report said two fence posts and two rods of fence on the farm of Hoyt Bock were damaged.

When Willie C. Peoples, Cincinnati, backed his truck into the right lane of traffic on the 300 block of E. Court St. Thursday afternoon he hit the parking car of Odie Mozina Brady, 46, Route 3, police said. His truck was slightly damaged.

William Cyrus Hunter, 48, Columbus, told officers he started to pass a car making a left turn when he hit another car driven by Kathleen Kelly, Mt. Sterling, at the intersection of Columbus Ave. and Blackstone St. at 6:52 p. m. Thursday. Damage was minor.

Parole Granted Slayer In 1956 Canton Case

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A former Massillon man, serving a prison sentence in the Marion Correctional Institution for manslaughter, will be paroled Dec. 19, the Ohio Pardon and Parole Commission announced Thursday. The prisoner, Daniel Jones, 53, was convicted of the fatal shooting of Lorenzo Snell during a fight in Canton, Aug. 15, 1956.

Urbana man for contempt of court, pointed out in his application that he has reason to believe that he will be called as a witness in contempt proceedings against Crow commenced in the Ohio Supreme Court.

Withdrawal of the local jurist's cross-petitions apparently would make it possible for the Unauthorized Practice Committee of the Ohio Bar Assn., which instituted the Supreme Court proceedings, to incorporate charges contained in Judge Case's cross-petitions in its action in the high court.

CROW has been given until Nov. 8 to show cause in the Supreme Court why he should not be cited for contempt.

The disbarred attorney earlier had asked the Court of Appeals to strike Judge Case's cross-petitions, arguing that the filing of them constituted practice of law by a judge on the bench.

The original mandamus actions were filed in an effort to compel the Common Pleas jurist to reinstate cases which the court had dismissed for lack of prosecution. The plaintiffs in these two cases were Beverly Clickner Walls and William Tumbleton, who had been Crow's clients.

Stockyards Fire Damage Is Small

A fire at the Union Stockyards, Rose Ave., at 6:43 p. m. Thursday, was probably caused by a cigarette or match stuck in the celotex wall, Fire Chief George Hall said Friday.

The fire in the partitions between restrooms in the main building was discovered by workmen who soon had the blaze under control, Chief Hall said. The damage was held to a minimum.

Chief Hall did not comment on how the match or cigarette was stuck in the wall.

Driver Loses Permit For Additional Year

Already under suspension for a year ending June 18, 1959, Glendal Earl Workman, Route 4, Washington C. H., was grounded for an additional 12 months in Common Pleas Court Friday morning when he was found to be a habitual traffic offender.

The 30-year-old defendant, who failed to answer or plead to a suspension request filed with the court by George C. Braden, Ohio registrar of motor vehicles, was cited under the state's point system for control of traffic offenses.

He was convicted of driving while intoxicated and for driving while under revocation of permit in Municipal Court during the past four months. Each offense carries six penalty points, with 12 being sufficient for suspension of driving privileges.

Judge John P. Case assessed the costs of the action against Workman.
